The 'Jewish Question' in German Literature, 1749-1939

Ritchie Robertson,2001-10-18 The Jewish Question in German Literature 1749 1939 is an erudite and searching literary study of the uneasy position of the Jews in Germany and Austria from the first pleas for Jewish emancipation during the Enlightenment to the eve of the Holocaust Trying to avoid hindsight and drawing on a wide range of literary texts Ritchie Robertson offers a close examination of attempts to construct a Jewish identity suitable for an increasingly secular world He examines both literary portrayals of Jews by Gentile writers whether antisemitic friendly or ambivalent and efforts to reinvent Jewish identities by the Jews themselves in response to antisemitism culminating in Zionism No other study by a single author deals with German Jewish relations so comprehensively and over such a long period of literary history Robertson s new work will prove stimulating for anyone interested in the modern Jewish experience as well as for scholars and students of German fiction prose and political culture

DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder, 2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema s lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film s provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media s materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author s previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema
