Intelligence and the Brain Dennis Garlick,2010 This book turns the corner and finally provides a convincing explanation of IQ and human intelligence It begins by rejecting some of the most basic assumptions that psychologists make about intelligence including that intelligence should be defined by behavior Instead it argues that intelligence is about the ability to understand It then uses recent scientific findings about the brain to show how changes in the brain lead to understanding Readers will find that this book contains many revelations that will profoundly change their perception of how their own brain works This book will also explore the startling implication of a sensitive period for developing intelligence arguing that children can learn differently than adults Anyone who is interested in how the brain works why people differ in intelligence and how a child can be a genius will want to read this book

Discrimination and Disparities Thomas Sowell,2019-03-05 An enlarged edition of Thomas Sowell's brilliant examination of the origins of economic disparities Economic and other outcomes differ vastly among individuals groups and nations Many explanations have been offered for the differences Some believe that those with less fortunate outcomes are victims of genetics Others believe that those who are less fortunate are victims of the more fortunate Discrimination and Disparities gathers a wide array of empirical evidence to challenge the idea that different economic outcomes can be explained by any one factor be it discrimination exploitation or genetics This revised and enlarged edition also analyzes the human consequences of the prevailing social vision of these disparities and the policies based on that vision from educational disasters to widespread crime and violence

Palo Alto Malcolm Harris,2023-02-14 Named One of the Year's Best Books by VULTURE THE NEW REPUBLIC DAZED WIRED BLOOMBERG ESQUIRE SALON THE NEXT BIG IDEA CLUB The history of Silicon Valley from railroads to microchips is an extraordinary story of disruption and destruction told for the first time in this comprehensive jaw dropping narrative Greg Grandin Pulitzer Prize winning author of The End of the Myth Palo Alto's weather is temperate its people are educated and enterprising its corporations are spiritually and materially ambitious and demonstrably world changing Palo Alto is also a haunted toxic waste dump built on stolen Indian burial grounds and an integral part of the capitalist world system In PALO ALTO the first comprehensive global history of Silicon Valley Malcolm Harris examines how and why Northern California evolved in the particular consequential way it did tracing the ideologies technologies and policies that have been engineered there over the course of 150 years of Anglo settler colonialism from IQ tests to the tragedy of the commons racial genetics and broken windows theory The Internet and computers too It s a story about how a small American suburb became a powerful engine for economic growth and war and how it came to lead the world into a surprisingly disastrous 21st century PALO ALTO is an urgent and visionary history of the way we live now one that ends with a clear eyed radical proposition for how we might begin to change course

Convergence Mental Health Harris A. Eyre, Michael Berk, Helen Lavretsky, III Charles Reynolds, 2021-01-05 Modern mental health issues are characterized by their complex multi systemic nature and broad societal impact making them poorly suited to siloed approaches of thinking and innovation Convergence science integrates knowledge tools and thought strategies from various fields and is the focal point where novel insights arise Convergence Mental Health presents a blueprint for leveraging convergence science within the context of mental health in order to improve patient outcomes and health care systems

Educational Assessment Robert J. Wright, 2008 Educational Tests and Measurements in the Age of Accountability is a core text for use in a first level graduate course in educational measurement and testing In addition to covering the topics traditionally found in core textbooks for this course this text also provides coverage of contemporary topics including national testing programs international achievement comparisons the value added assessment of schools and teachers and the public policy debate on selective admissions vs affirmative minority enrollment

Leopold's Shack and Ricketts's Lab Michael Lannoo, 2010-05-01 Aldo Leopold and Ed Ricketts are giants in the history of environmental awareness They were born ten years and only about 200 miles apart and died within weeks of each other in 1948 Yet they never met and they didn t read each other s work This illuminating book reveals the full extent of their profound and parallel influence both on science and our perception of natural world today In a lively comparison Michael J Lannoo shows how deeply these two ecological luminaries influenced the emergence both of environmentalism and conservation biology In particular he looks closely at how they each derived their ideas about the possible future of humanity based on their understanding of natural communities Leopold and Ricketts both believed that humans cannot place themselves above earth s ecosystems and continue to survive In light of climate change invasive species and collapsing ecosystems their most important shared idea emerges as a powerful key to the future

The Village Effect Susan Pinker, 2015-08-25 In her surprising entertaining and persuasive new book award winning author and psychologist Susan Pinker shows how face to face contact is crucial for learning happiness resilience and longevity From birth to death human beings are hard wired to connect to other human beings Face to face contact matters tight bonds of friendship and love heal us help children learn extend our lives and make us happy Looser in person bonds matter too combining with our close relationships to form a personal village around us one that exerts unique effects And not just any social networks will do we need the real face to face in the flesh encounters that tie human families groups of friends and communities together

Marrying the findings of the new field of social neuroscience together with gripping human stories Susan Pinker explores the impact of face to face contact from cradle to grave from city to Sardinian mountain village from classroom to workplace from love to marriage to divorce Her results are enlightening and enlivening and they challenge our assumptions Most of us have left the literal village behind and don't want to give up our new technologies to go back there But as Pinker writes so compellingly we need close social bonds and uninterrupted face time with our friends and families in order to thrive even to survive Creating our own village effect can make us happier It can also save our lives High Potential Ian MacRae, Adrian Furnham, Martin Reed, 2018-02-22 In today's competitive job market can employers afford to spend large sums on recruitment and then simply let talented people go High Potential provides a practical framework for managers to create a strong strategic vision for a high performing high potential workforce Updated to reflect more recent research in the area the book presents an accessible guide to clearly understanding and defining potential and how to manage high potential employees and develop their career New case studies show how businesses have used the concepts outlined in the book to nurture future talent in the workplace and gain a real competitive business advantage The Creative Brain Anna Abraham, 2024-04-30 A nuanced science based understanding of the creative mind that dispels the pervasive myths we hold about the human brain but also uncovers the truth at their cores What is the relationship between creativity and madness Creativity and intelligence Do psychedelics truly enhance creativity How should we understand the left and right hemispheres of the brain Is the left brain in fact the seat of reasoning and the right brain the seat of creativity These are just some of the questions Anna Abraham a renowned expert of human creativity and the imagination explores in The Creative Brain a fascinating deep dive into the origins of the seven most common beliefs about the human brain Rather than endorse or debunk these myths Abraham traces them back to their origins to explain just how they started and why they spread and what at their core is the truth Drawing on theoretical and empirical work in cognitive psychology and neuroscience Abraham offers an examination of human creativity that reveals the true complexity underlying our conventional beliefs about the brain The chapters in the book explore the myth of the right brain as the hemisphere responsible for creativity the relationship between madness and creativity psychedelics and creativity atypical brains and creativity and intelligence and creativity the various functions of dopamine and lastly the default mode revolution which theorized that the brain regions most likely to be involved in the creative process are those areas of the brain that are most active during rest or mind wandering An accessible and engaging read The Creative Brain gets to the heart of how our creative minds work and why some people are more creative than others offering illuminating insights into what on its surface seems to be an endlessly magical phenomenon Spark Claudia Kalb, 2021-04-27 Yo Yo Ma's ear for music emerged not long after he learned to walk By the age of seven he was performing for President Kennedy by fifteen he debuted at Carnegie Hall Maya Angelou by contrast didn't write her iconic memoir I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings until she was 40 What propels some individuals to reach extraordinary creative heights in the earliest years of life while others discover their passions decades later Are prodigies imbued with innate talent How often are midlife inspirations triggered by propitious events like Julia Child s first French meal at the age of 36 Do late bloomers reveal their talents because their skills require life experience and contemplation Through engaging storytelling and intriguing historical and cutting edge scientific research best selling author and acclaimed journalist Claudia Kalb explores these questions to uncover what makes a prodigy and what drives a late bloomer In this series of linked biographies Kalb follows the journeys of thirteen remarkable individuals from Shirley Temple to Alexander Fleming to Eleanor Roosevelt to Bill Gates to discover the secrets behind their talents Each possessed a unique arc of inspiration Each through science art music theater and politics reached extraordinary success at different stages of life And each offers us a chance to explore the genesis and experience of genius
