On Social Closure JURGEN. MACKERT,2024-11-11 In his book On Social Closure J rgen Mackert seeks to reinvigorate the idea of social closure and bring it back as a basic sociological concept for understanding the strategies and processes powerful groups use to improve their life chances at the expense of the less powerful To do this he puts forward a mechanism based explanatory approach that makes it possible to empirically study social closure through exclusion in the context of neoliberalism exploitation within global capitalism and elimination in the ongoing legacy of settler colonialism Further he identifies two critical social mechanisms to explain how human beings are denied access to resources rights or critical networks and to bring power dynamics into closure analysis Feminist Critical Policy Analysis: A perspective from post-secondary education Catherine Marshall,1997 This text sets out to challenge the traditional power basis of the policy decision makers in education It contests that others who have an equal right to be consulted and have their opinions known have been silenced declared irrelevant postponed and otherwise ignored Policies have thus been formed and implemented without even a cursory feminist critical glance The chapters in this text illustrate how to incorporate critical and feminist lenses and thus create policies to meet the lived realities the needs aspirations and values of women and girls A particular focus is the primary and s Contemporary European Perspectives on the Ethics of End of Life Care Nathan

Emmerich,Pierre Mallia,Bert Gordijn,Francesca Pistoia,2020-05-12 This book examines the ethics of end of life care focusing on the kinds of decisions that are commonly made in clinical practice Specific attention is paid to the intensification of treatment for terminal symptoms particularly pain relief and the withdrawal and withholding of care particularly life saving or life prolonging medical care The book is structured into three sections The first section contains essays examining end of life care from the perspective of moral theory and theology The second sets out various conceptual terms and distinctions relevant to decision making at the end of life The third section contains chapters that focus on substantive ethical issues This format not only provides for a comprehensive analysis of the ethical issues that arise in the context of end of life care but allows readers to effectively trace the philosophical theological and conceptual underpinnings that inform their specific interests This work will be of interest to scholars working in the area as well as clinicians specialists and healthcare professionals who encounter these issues in the course of their practice Oversight Hearing on the Pacific Northwest
