Cocaine, AIDS, and Intravenous Drug Use Samuel R. Friedman, Douglas S. Lipton, Barry Stimmel, 1991 In lay language Cocaine AIDS and Intravenous Drug Use presents what works and what doesn't work in counseling drug dependent persons Those in the substance abuse treatment field have been concerned in the last few years with combating the deadly combination of cocaine addiction and AIDS This encouraging book describes in detail new methods being tested for effectively decreasing the risks for HIV infection of drug dependent persons Cocaine AIDS and Intravenous Drug Use shows the harsh realities of the cycle of drug use and the spread of AIDS and fosters a realistic understanding of the choices facing treatment programs and agencies Helping to generate a research agenda for the 1990s this needed book examines what has been successful in treatment and prevention and raises issues to promote greater research in the fields for improved treatment and prevention of drug abuse and HIV infection

What Works In Drug Abuse Epidemiology Blanche Frank, Ronald Simeone, Barry Stimmel, 1992-01-20 This excellent overview of the state of the art drug abuse epidemiology provides the necessary information to approach the first step in solving the drug abuse problem describing and identifying all the elements that contribute to it These lively and descriptive accounts of drug abuse epidemiology guide drug abuse researchers public health experts and social scientists as they gather and evaluate critical drug abuse information for the particular population they serve Authoritative contributors offer practical advice regarding what works in drug abuse epidemiology what doesn't work and the reasons why First hand knowledge on ethnographic strategies surveillance techniques and practical approaches for professionals previously with few resources and little expertise will keep them on the cutting edge of this field What Works in Drug Abuse Epidemiology provides a variety of examples of epidemiologic research methods concentrating on three major themes The approaches and findings of epidemiological efforts nationally and internationally are presented demonstrating the adaptability of methods under the varying cultural and political climates of the United States Mexico Great Britain and European countries Chapters are included which offer strategies for studying hard to reach populations that are especially at risk specifically black youth living in ghettos and homeless people in public shelters Particularly useful to professionals developing epidemiological strategies are discussions of creative non traditional studies for such problems as designer drugs and drug use on the streets of New York City which assist drug abuse epidemiologists in developing strategies to get at the heart of specific drug abuse problems

The Effectiveness of Social Interventions for Homeless Substance Abusers Gerald Stahler, Barry Stimmel, 1995 This resource is devoted exclusively to reporting the results of rigorous research concerning substance abuse treatment outcomes for homeless persons The Effectiveness of Social Interventions for Homeless Substance Abusers reveals that while dropout rates are high for this population it is essential to develop treatment programs that not only focus on the addiction but also address the tangible needs of the homeless notably housing income support and employment
