Successful Conversion To Unleaded Gasoline In Thailand:

Successful Conversion to Unleaded Gasoline in Thailand Philip Sayeg, 1998-01-01 The Government of Thailand within a five year period 1991-95 introduced a series of initiatives that resulted in the elimination of leaded gasoline and reduction of ambient lead by a factor of 10 This report describes the strategies the government employed educating about the dangers of airborne lead setting a lower at pump price for unleaded gasoline helping the oil companies establish a system to distribute unleaded gasoline throughout the country conducting monitoring and follow up studies and adjusting environmental regulations as necessary to support these policies Institutional Frameworks in Successful Water Markets Manuel

Mariño, Karin E. Kemper, 1999-01-01 Water is increasingly recognized as a scarce resource that must be managed more efficiently than in the past In addition to physical scarcity the cost of accessing these resources is climbing This publication explores institutional frameworks in three case studies of long standing and successful water markets These cases demonstrate the common features and essential elements of water markets They also show how to design markets that consider the local institutional social and political conditions and how to integrate those markets into existing water resource management arrangements The papers are written for practitioners interested in how water markets operate for decisionmakers faced with the challenge of selecting a water resource allocation system and for academics interested in analytical descriptive case studies that provide information on how to conceptualize the functioning of water markets from an institutional perspective Legal Impediments to Effective Rural Land Relations in Eastern Europe and Central Asia Roy L. Prosterman, Timothy M. Hanstad, 1999-01-01 Excessive concentration of land ownership as is feared by many transition governments has not been a feature of land markets where they have been allowed to function relatively freely and where land has been allocated in kind to households and individuals The World Bank has long been active in the Europe and Central Asia region in monitoring and evaluating land reform developments and supporting the development of land markets Bank efforts to date have made a significant impact in our client countries and studies produced by the Bank have been used as impartial references on this subject by both international organizations and the countries themselves This report was developed as a result of these efforts It focuses on The principal issues faced by the transition economies of Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union The potential approaches for resolving specific problem issues A Guide to the World Bank, 2003 The World Bank Group works in more than 100 developing economies and is one of the world's largest sources of development assistance In 2002 the institution provided US 19.5 billion in loans to its client countries This guide reviews the organisation's history objectives and operations and looks at the five institutions that make up the World Bank Group the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD the International Development Association IDA the International Finance Corporation IFC the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency MIGA and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID Municipal Solid Waste Incineration T. Rand, J. Haukohl, U.

Marxen,2000-01-01 Ever increasing amounts of solid waste and dwindling space for disposal is a problem reaching crisis level in many of the world s largest urban areas Incineration as an alternative to landfill has come under scrutiny though the capital and operating costs generally exceed those associated with landfill This report provides background information for the Decision maker guide to municipal solid waste MSW incineration Key criteria for a solid waste incineration scheme are identified and the report gives decision makers information on how to investigate and assess the degree to which they are fulfilled

From Transition to Accession Esen Ulgenerk,Leila Zlaoui,2000-01-01 Bulgaria is recovering from a severe economic and financial crisis after more than half a decade of macroeconomic mismanagement As a candidate country for accession to the EU Bulgaria will need to establish stable well regulated and competitive financial markets and institutions This paper reviews developments in the financial markets

Poverty and Policy in Latin America and the Caribbean Quentin Wodon,Robert L. Ayres,2000 Although the progress toward poverty reduction remains sluggish other dimensions of social welfare in the Latin American and Caribbean LAC region show signs of improvement Adult literacy and school enrollment rates life expectancy at birth and the amount of access to safe water are increasing Nutrition indicators are also improving However other factors demonstrate that many problems persist especially the inequality between rich and poor This report analyzes the evolution of poverty and inequality in the LAC region from 1986 to 1996 with projections to 1998 It reviews the policies which have been advocated or implemented to reduce poverty The report combines the results of new empirical work using household surveys from 12 countries short theoretical developments and a review of the literature on issues related to poverty inequality and social policy in LAC Some of the theoretical developments introduce new research techniques Chapters three to six follow the framework proposed in the forthcoming World Development Report 2000 2001 The framework identifies three essential elements for poverty reduction Those elements include opportunities for the poor and investments in the human capital of the poor security through social safety nets and empowerment

Regional and International Trade Policy Csaba Csáki,John Nash,1999-01-01 With appropriate preparation and policies the enlargement of the European Union EU will result in a broader and higher level integration of European agriculture create an environment more conducive to further liberalization of global agricultural trade and lead to further opening of European markets As part of the World Bank s Strategic Compact Initiative the Bank has coordinated activities to help the ten EU accession countries achieve EU membership These activities include the preparation of studies to facilitate implementation of necessary reforms and sponsoring seminars and workshops to disseminate and analyze the results This volume presents the major papers and summaries of one of the Workshop deliberations This volume includes the following topics lessons learned from other regional agricultural trade agreements the evolution of the Common Agricultural Policy CAP an analysis of the economic impact of trade flows the harmonization of agricultural policies within trade agreements the implications of the external trade environment for the accession countries the role of sanitary and phytosanitary trade rule in EU accession quantifying

the incentive and farm income effects of agricultural support policies in transition economies major challenges to agricultural input regulation and trade during transition and EU accession concluding comments by the World Bank Food and Agriculture in the Czech Republic Csaba Csáki, Michel Debatisse, Oskar Honisch, 1999-01-01 Becoming a member of the European Union is one of the most important objectives of the Czech Republic for the coming years both for the government and for the Czech society as a whole With the exception of a few traditional Czech products the Czech Republic is not a major exporter of agricultural goods due to its land locked position and relatively poor product differentiation Since the velvet revolution in 1989 agricultural production has declined To conform to European Union standards for accession the Czech Republic needs to make some adjustments This report reviews the current state of Czech agriculture and agro industry in the context of EU accession It analyzes institutional reforms and their actual impacts and proposes a series of adjustments to complete the reforms in the agricultural sector This report is intended for agricultural scientists public officials agricultural and agro industrial leaders and researchers interested in the transformation of agriculture in the transition economies and in issues pertaining to accession of Central and East European candidate countries to the European Union Agricultural Support Policies in Transition Economies Alberto Valdés, 2000-01-01 Studies of Russia Romania Poland Bulgaria and Turkey
