Sub Commander Tactics Strategies For:

Sub Commander Richard G. Sheffield, 1987      A Strategy For Terminating A Nuclear War Clark C Abt, 2021-11-28
Avoiding a nuclear war or ending one if avoidance fails is an important but relatively unexplored aspect of nuclear doctrine Dr Abt examines the feasibility of antagonists agreeing to exclude their open cities from nuclear targeting and to replace strategic bombardment with retaliatory invasion to create less of a hair 1 trigger deterrent Critical net assessments by U S strategists and the effects of such a strategy on the Soviet Union and on U S allies are considered along with problems implementation might pose The author contends that both deterrence and the potential for limiting damage are strengthened by pre war plans for a nuclear ceasefire and stalemate short of holocaust      Strategy in Poker, Business & War John McDonald, 1996-07-17 Whether your primary interest is to improve your card game or put together a political coalition here you will be enjoyably instructed in an approach to strategy that has caught the imagination of a generation of readers John McDonald looks at the elusive thread of opposition and conflict that runs through human interrelationships from the striking of a bargain to the clash of war He discusses poker game theory as it applies to games but mainly to business the strategies of buyers and sellers and finally military and other applications      Exercises in Strategy and Tactics Hugo von Gizycki, 1915      Practical Field Exercises in Minor Tactics and Strategy John Philip Wisser, 1903      Practical Modelling of Dynamic Decision Making Rick Evertsz, John Thangarajah, Thanh Ly, 2019-03-23 This book presents TDF Tactics Development Framework a practical methodology for eliciting and engineering models of expert decision making in dynamic domains The authors apply the BDI Beliefs Desires Intentions paradigm to the elicitation and modelling of dynamic decision making expertise including team behaviour and map it to a diagrammatic representation that is intuitive to domain experts The book will be of value to researchers and practitioners engaged in dynamic decision making      The Submariner's Dictionary Or Submariner's Compendium of Terms & Tar's Handbook of Naval Verbiage and Retired Guy's Re-familiarization Manual Ron Martini, 2005 Submariners are a tight knit group of men bound together by training and experience and with a language all their own That language is perhaps a little vulgar but never intentionally demeaning and a little irreverent but still worldly This work is an attempt to preserve and explain some of these curious guys who so proudly wear a shiny metal pin that looks like a strange pair of fish on their left breast This process of accumulating this new language begins in Boot Camp and is added to with every change of duty station the sailor undergoes It is heard aboard the boats and unknowingly by family members who can't understand terms like head deck and overhead and who think SOS is a distress signal      Strategy and Command Louis Morton, 1962 An analysis of organization and logistics as well as strategy and command covering the coming of the war Japanese policy and American strategy before Pearl Harbor Japanese victories in the first six months of the war first efforts in New Guinea and the Solomons to stem the Japanese tide and the limited offensive in the summer of 1943      Strategy for Victory David Ian Hall, 2007-12-30 Strategy for Victory The Development of British Tactical Air Power 1919

1943 examines the nature of the inter Service crisis between the British Army and the RAF over the provision of effective air support for the army in the Second World War Material for this book is drawn primarily from the rich collection of documents at the National Archives UK and other British archives The author makes a highly original point that Britain s independent RAF was in fact a disguised blessing for the Army and that the air force s independence was in part a key reason why a successful solution to the army s air support problems was found The analysis traces why the British army went to war in 1939 without adequate air support and how an effective system of support was organized by the RAF As such it is the first scholarly survey of the origins and development of British air support doctrine and practice during the early years of the Second World War The provision of direct air support was of central importance to the success enjoyed by Anglo American armies during the latter half of the Second World War First in North Africa and later in Italy and North West Europe American British and Empire armies fought most if not all of their battles with the knowledge that they enjoyed unassailable air superiority throughout the battle area This advantage however was the product of a long and bitter dispute between the British Army and the Royal Air Force that began at the end of the First World War and continued virtually unabated until it was resolved in late 1942 and early 1943 when the 2nd Tactical Air Force was created Battlefield experience and in particular success in North Africa combined with the hard work wisdom and perseverance of Air Marshals Sir Arthur Tedder and Arthur Coningham the active co operation of General Bernard Montgomery and the political authority of Prime Minister Winston Churchill produced a uniquely British system that afforded the most comprehensive effective and flexible air support provided by any air force during the war The book is divided into two equal parts of five chapters Part one surveys how the British Army went to war in 1939 without adequate air support and part two explains how an effective system of air support was organized by the middle years of the war The analysis traces Britain s earliest experience with aircraft in the Great War 1914 1918 the inter war period of doctrinal development and inter Service rivalry and the major campaigns in France and the Middle East during the first half of the Second World War when the weaknesses in Army RAF co operation were first exposed and eventually resolved As such it is the first scholarly survey of the origin and development of British air support doctrine and practice during the early years of the Second World War      Exercises in strategy and tactics [by H. von Giżycki], tr. by S. Wilkinson Hugo von Giżycki, 1887
