Reproductive manipulations to boost polygyny + stress + testosterone = addition = subtraction = what more?

A child's hands are shown placing a butterfly cutout onto a red background. The background is covered with various other cutouts, including a yellow house, a pink heart, a green star, a blue square, and several geometric shapes like triangles and circles. The cutouts are made of different colored paper and have a slightly textured appearance. The child's hands are visible in the bottom right corner, holding the butterfly cutout. The overall scene is a creative and colorful display of children's art.
