Spectacular Suffering Theatre Fascism And The Holocaust:

Spectacular Suffering Vivian Patraka, 1999-09-22 Surveying texts ranging from plays and performances to films and museums this book explores the struggle to represent the landscape of the Holocaust Echoes of the Holocaust on the American Musical Stage Jessica Hillman, 2012-10-16 With chapters on The Sound of Music Milk and Honey Fiddler on the Roof Cabaret The Rothschilds Rags Ragtime and The Producers this book examines both direct and indirect references to or resonances of the Holocaust tracing changing American attitudes through the chronological progression of these musical productions and their subsequent revivals Despite the abundance of writing on both musical theatre history and on the difficulties of Holocaust representation history and theatre scholars alike have thus far ignored the intersections of these areas The academy thereby risks excluding precisely those works that shed the most light on our culture's evolving response to the Shoah an event that still helps to define American identity This book redresses this lapse by focusing on the theatrical form seen by the greatest amount of people musicals which either trigger or reflect changing American mores Holocaust Drama Gene A. Plunka, 2009-04-02 The Holocaust the systematic attempted destruction of European Jewry and other threats to the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945 has been portrayed in fiction film memoirs and poetry Gene Plunka's study will add to this chronicle with an examination of the theatre of the Holocaust Including thorough critical analyses of more than thirty plays this book explores the seminal twentieth century Holocaust dramas from the United States Europe and Israel Biographical information about the playwrights production histories of the plays and pertinent historical information are provided placing the plays in their historical and cultural contexts The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance Paul Allain, Jen Harvie, 2013-05-13 Discussing some of the pivotal questions relating to the complementary fields of theatre and performance studies this engaging easy to use text is undoubtedly a perfect reference guide for the keen student and passionate theatre goer alike Claude Lanzmann's 'Shoah' Outtakes Sue Vice, 2021-04-22 As we approach the end of the era of the witness given the passing on of the generation of Holocaust survivors Claude Lanzmann's archive of 220 hours of footage excluded from his ground breaking documentary Shoah 1985 offers a remarkable opportunity to encounter previously unseen interviews with survivors and other witnesses recorded in the late 1970s Although the archive is all available freely to view online and includes extra footage of those who appear in Shoah this book focuses on the interviews from which no extracts appear in the finished film or in any subsequent release The material analysed features interviews with such significant figures as the former partisan Abba Kovner wartime activist Hansi Brand Kovno Ghetto leader Leib Garfunkel rescuer Tadeusz Pankiewicz and members of Roosevelt's War Refugee Board and focuses throughout on the efforts at rescue and resistance by those within and outside occupied Europe Sue Vice contends that watching and analysing this wholly excluded footage gives us new insights into the making of Shoah through what was left out Moreover she reveals that the near impossibility of rescue and often suicidal implications of resistance emerge through these excluded interviews as inextricable from the process of genocide She concludes by arguing that the outtakes show the potential for new filmic forms envisaged on Lanzmann's part in order to represent the crucial topics of attempted Holocaust rescue and resistance The SAGE Handbook of Performance Studies D. Soyini Madison, Judith Hamera, 2006 Publisher description Visualizing Atrocity Valerie Hartouni, 2012-08-20 Visualizing Atrocity takes Hannah Arendt's provocative and polarizing account of the 1961 trial of Nazi official Adolf Eichmann as its point of departure for reassessing some of the serviceable myths that have come to shape and limit our understanding both of the Nazi genocide and totalitarianism's broader constitutive and recurrent features These myths are inextricably tied to and reinforced viscerally by the atrocity imagery that emerged with the liberation of the concentration camps at the war's end and played an especially important evidentiary role in the postwar trials of perpetrators At the 1945 Nuremberg Tribunal particular practices of looking and seeing were first established with respect to these images that were later reinforced and institutionalized through Eichmann's trial in Jerusalem as simply part of the fabric of historical fact They have come to constitute a certain visual rhetoric that now circumscribes the moral and political fields and powerfully assists in contemporary mythmaking about how we know genocide and what is permitted to count as such In contrast Arendt's claims about the banality of evil work to disrupt this visual rhetoric More significantly still they direct our attention well beyond the figure of Eichmann to a world organized now as then by practices and processes that while designed to sustain and even enhance life work as well to efface it Dancing Communities J. Hamera, 2006-11-08 Dancers create civic culture as performances for public consumption but also as vernaculars connecting individuals who may have little in common Examining performance and the construction of culturally diverse communities the book suggests that amateur and concert dance can teach us how to live and work productively together Staging Difficult Pasts Maria M. Delgado, Michal Kobialka, Bryce Lease, 2023-12-22 This collection of original essays brings together museum theatre and performance case studies with a focus on their distinctive and overlapping modes of producing memory for transnational audiences Whether this is through narrative object embodied encounter or a combination of the three this volume considers distinctions and interactions between memory and history specifically through the lenses of theatre and performance studies visual culture and museum and curator studies This book is underpinned by three areas of research enquiry How are contemporary theatre makers and museum curators staging historical narratives of difficult pasts How might comparisons between theatre and museum practices offer new insights into the role objects play in generating and representing difficult pasts What points of overlap comparison and contrast among these constructions of history and memory of authoritarianism slavery colonialism genocide armed conflict fascism and communism might offer an expanded understanding of difficult pasts in these transnational cultural contexts This collection is designed for any scholar of its central disciplines as well as for those interested in cultural geography memory studies and postcolonial theory The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons
