Spectre Of Capitalism

Bill Swainson

Spectre Of Capitalism:

The Spectre of Capitalism William Keegan, 1992 The author argues that with the collapse of communism world leaders must now answer the question about the kind of capitalism that is going to replace bankrupt economies This book highlights the success of a mixed economy that combines a free market with state responsibility for infrastructure

The Spectre of State Capitalism Ilias Alami, Adam D. Dixon, 2024-09-23 The state is back and it means business Since the turn of the 21st century state owned enterprises sovereign funds and policy banks have vastly expanded their control over assets and markets Concurrently governments have experimented with increasingly assertive modalities of statism from techno industrial policies and spatial development strategies to economic nationalism and trade and investment restrictions This book argues that we are currently witnessing a historic arc in the trajectories of state intervention characterized by a drastic reconfiguration of the state's role as promoter supervisor shareholder investor and direct owner of capital across the world economy It offers a comprehensive analysis of this new state capitalism as commentators increasingly refer to it and maps out its key empirical manifestations across a range of geographies cases and issue areas Alami and Dixon show that the new state capitalism is rooted in deep geopolitical economic and financial processes pertaining to the secular development of global capitalism as much as it is the product of the geoeconomic agency of states and the global corporate strategies of leading firms The book demonstrates that the proliferation of muscular modalities of statist interventionism and the increasing concentration of capital in the hands of states indicate foundational shifts in global capitalism This includes a growing fusion of private and state capital and the development of flexible and liquid forms of property that collapse the distinction between state and private ownership control and management This has fundamental implications for the nature and operations of global capitalism and world politics This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

The Specter of Capitalism and the Promise of a Classless Society Donald David Weiss, 1993

Postmodern Time and Space in Fiction and Theory Michael Kane, 2020-01-14 Postmodern Time and Space in Fiction and Theory seeks to place the contemporary transformation of notions of space and time often attributed to the technologies we use in the context of the ongoing transformations of modernity Bringing together examples of modern and contemporary fiction from Defoe to DeLillo Frankenstein to Finnegans Wake and theoretical discussions of the modern and the post modern the author explores the legacy of modern transformations of space and time under five headings The Space of Nature The Space of the City Postmodern or Most Modern Time The Time and Space of the Work of Art in the Age of Digital Reproduction and Travel from Modernity to These five essays re-examine the meanings of modernity and its aftermath in relation to the spaces and times of the natural the urban and the media environment

The Cinema of Cuba Ann Marie Stock, Guy Baron, Antonio Álvarez Pitaluga, 2017-06-30 Contemporary Cuba is opening up to the rest of the world Its colonial past and the Communist revolution have left a lasting imprint on society yet there is a tangible sense of rapid change which is reflected in the island's national cinema. New screen technologies and digital distribution media have supported the efficacy and global reach of Cuban filmmakers whose work, somewhat in lieu of adequate distribution and traditional screening facilities in Cuba itself, is often disseminated via flash USB memory sticks. Channelling an energetic DIY attitude through grassroots movements and ad hoc resourcefulness, the new filmmakers of Cuba have inspired the editors of this book to embrace their contagious enthusiasm through essays on authentic Cuban cinema. Whilst the book provides a comprehensive overview of the history behind current practices, it also moves beyond this to examine key case studies as well as snapshots of individuals working within the industry today. Chapters celebrate the shared creativity as well as diversity of Cuban cinema, including both productions of the Cuban Film Institute's ICAIC as well as those from the industry margins. The films discussed demonstrate a driving cinematic force through social criticism, the emphasis of debate and historical change through film reassessments of gender relations, the use of new technologies and much more.

Decolonising Gender

Caroline Rooney, 2007-11-13 Through examination of the functions of language and cross-cultural readings of literature from African queer reading to postcolonial Shakespeare, Rooney explores current ideas of performativity in literature and language and negotiates a path between feminist theory's common pitfalls of essentialism and constructivism.

The Encarta Book of Quotations Bill Swainson, 2000-09-30 Here are 25 000 quotations drawn from the history, politics, literature, religions, science and popular culture of the world, ranging from the earliest Chinese sages through Shakespeare to the present day.

The Spectre at the Feast Andrew Gamble, 2019-10-10 After a long feast of prosperity in the western world, the crisis in the financial markets has conjured up an old spectre, the spectre of capitalist crisis, which many thought had been finally exorcised. On past experience, a full-blown capitalist crisis would bring with it the threat of slump, collapse, polarisation, conflict and even war spreading to all parts of the global economy, hence the great efforts being made to contain the present downturn. This important new book by a leading authority sets the financial crisis of 2007-8 in historical context and assesses its global consequences, how far it might go and what is to be done.

Haunting the Knowledge Economy Jane Kenway, Elizabeth Bullen, Johannah Fahey, Simon Robb, 2006-11-22 This highly original book provides an engaging and critical introduction to the knowledge economy. The knowledge economy is a potent force pervading global and national policy circles. Yet few people outside the field of economics understand its central ideas and practices. This book makes these accessible. But it does much more. It provokes conversations between the knowledge economy and those marginalized economies that haunt it: the risk, gift, libidinal and survival economies. These illuminate the knowledge economy's shortcomings and point to alternative possible systems of exchange and sets of values. This multi-disciplinary study takes the knowledge economy out of the hands of the economists and brings it into creative tension with the ideas of key thinkers from sociology, anthropology, philosophy and ecology. Illustrating the benefits of conversing with the ghosts of alternative economies, this provocative book will unsettle the way in which the knowledge economy is understood Groundbreaking and globally applicable it has been authored by internationally respected authors and its conceptual breadth pertains to a range of disciplines and gives it its wide appeal

National Identity in 21st-Century Cuban Cinema Dunja Fehimović, 2018-08-10 National Identity in 21st Century Cuban Cinema tours early 21st century Cuban cinema through four key figures the monster the child the historic icon and the recluse in order to offer a new perspective on the relationship between the Revolution culture and national identity in contemporary Cuba Exploring films chosen to convey a recent diversification of subject matters genres and approaches it depicts a changing industrial landscape in which the national film institute ICAIC coexists with international co producers and small independent production companies By tracing the reappearance reconfiguration and recycling of national identity in recent fiction feature films the book demonstrates that the spectre of the national haunts Cuban cinema in ways that reflect intensified transnational flows of people capital and culture Moreover it shows that the creative manifestations of this spectre screen both hiding and revealing a persistent anxiety around Cubanness even as national identity is transformed by connections to the outside world
