Spinning Tales Weaving Hope Stories Storytelling And Activities For Peace Justice And The Environment:

Spinning Tales, Weaving Hope Ed Brody, 2002 A cherished storytelling sourcebook is back A Life in Storytelling Binnie Tate Wilkin, 2014-03-25 A Life in Storytelling contains the reflections and lessons from one of the most noted storytellers of our times Fifty years of storytelling has provided Binnie Tate Wilkin with the experiences and insights to form the basis of a text for the storyteller both for the professional librarian teacher or parent wanting to provide children with substance through story The sections of the book are designed to provide background material for the art and craft of storytelling the methods and uses of storytelling sources and examples of stories and a broad selection of over 100 stories briefly annotated Included are sections that explain how to derive or adapt stories from current events history or imaginative writings and a detailed treatment in the use of dance in storytelling a technique that if not invented by Wilkin has become a trademark of her approach The treatment is always informal and personal and is interleaved with anecdotes drawn from the author's more than 50 years of storytelling

A Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance Bob Blumenthal, 2005 How do you teach children to value peace and appreciate diversity One way is to provide them with books with themes that promote these ideas The Parent Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance offers readers a wide variety of award winning titles along with annotations and grade level recommendations The book is divided into the following sections Preschool grade three Grades 4 6 Middle school and High school Each section has over 100 listings Topics include civil rights the Holocaust slavery Native Americans bullying war child abuse bigotry cooperation acceptance apartheid family relationships Arab Israeli conflict controlling anger the Civil War the Vietnam War WWII gays and lesbians and other social issues Many of these books are the recipients of the following awards and honors Newbery Award School Library Journal starred review Caldecott Award Boston Globe Horn Book Award American Library Association Notable Book Jane Addams Children's Book Award American Bookseller Pick of the List Kirkus Reviews starred review Publishers Weekly starred review Booklist starred review Coretta Scott King Award VOYA Top Picks National Book Award and the Michael L Printz Award This guide is an excellent resource for parents who would like their children to become peace loving accepting adults Teachers who are looking for books to supplement their curriculum will find the suggested titles to be among the best written works in the designated areas For example one would be hard pressed to find a better written book on the Holocaust for middle and high school students than I Have Lived One Thousand Years The author has done a great service by providing parents and teachers with a list of books that cannot be found anywhere else

The Jewish Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit, 2012-08-10 Storytelling as oral tradition and in writing has long played a central role in Jewish society Family educators and clergy employ stories to transmit Jewish culture traditions and values This comprehensive bibliography identifies 668 Jewish folktales by title and subject summarizing plot lines for easy access to the right story for any occasion Some centuries old and others freshly imagined the tales include animal fables supernatural yarns and anecdotes for festivals and holidays Themes include justice community cause and effect and mitzvahs or good deeds This second edition nearly doubles the number of stories and expands the guide's global reach with new pieces from Turkey Morocco Libya Tunisia and Chile Subject cross references and a glossary complete the volume a living tool for understanding the ever evolving world of Jewish folklore
