Spirit Possession Modernity And Power In Africa:

Spirit Possession, Modernity & Power in Africa Heike Behrend, 1999 In Africa as well as in Europe many spirits and their mediums are part of local as well as global cultures Christian spirits named Hitler Mussolini or King Bruce Lee flourish in a pantheon of new holy spirits in Uganda waging war against the government Spirits of airplanes engines guitars and angels are found in Central Africa and thunder snakes and rain as well as playboys and prostitutes inhabit the spirit world in West Africa Spirit possession cults have continued to proliferate even in the secular West and continue to be a subject of intense interest Despite the continuous expansion of the field some problems are only now beginning to be explored The experts in this volume focus on questions of power the history and inner dynamics of cults the role of gender and images of the other based on research conducted during the last fifteen years in Africa The contributors document changes taking place across the continent as possession beliefs and practices respond to new circumstances and address the shifting local implications of an increasingly global socio economy Gender ethnicity and class are examined as intersecting forces and features of spirit phenomena The case studies presented are richly contextualized history social organization and upheaval alternative religious options all are considered relevant to an understanding of possession forms Contributors Leslie Sharp Heike Behrend Adeline Masquelier Mathias Krings Jean Paul Colley Alexandra O de Sousa Susan Kenyon Tobias Wendl Ute Luig and Linda Giles Co published with James Currey Publishers U K The Wisconsin edition is not for sale in the United Kingdom the traditional British Commonwealth excepting Canada nor in Europe Spirit Possession, Modernity & Power in Africa Heike Behrend, Ute Luig, 1999 Focuses on questions of power the history and inner dynamics of cults and images of the other

The Pauline Concept of Supernatural Powers Kabiro wa Gatumu, 2009-02-20 The study of supernatural powers is fraught with vexing hermeneutical challenges which aggravate further in the African context While on the one hand Western anthropology tends to discount the idea of supernatural powers by attempting to explain them away on the other Western biblical scholarship has mainly worked from the premise of demythologizing them But none of these approaches make tangible sense to African scholars for whom supernatural powers constitute an integral component of their spiritual psyche This book based on an examination of over a thousand documentary sources both classic and modern attempts to address the issue of interpreting supernatural powers from an African worldview The author analyzes identifies and critiques major hermeneutical errors and offers a bridging hermeneutic using the method of reader response criticism

Living History Ana Lucia Araujo, 2009-05-05 This book focusses on the several forms of reconstructing the slave past in the present The recent emergence of the memory of slavery allows those who are or who claim to be descendants of slaves to legitimize their demand for recognition and for reparations for past wrongs Some reparation claims encompass financial compensation but very often they express the need for memorialization through public commemoration museums and monuments In some contexts presentification of the slave past has helped governments and the descendants of former masters and slave merchants to formulate public apologies For some expressing repentance is not only a means to erase guilt but also a way to gain political prestige The authors analyse different aspects of the recent phenomenon of memorializing slavery especially the practices employed to stage the slave past in both public and private spaces The essays present memory and oblivion as part of the same process they discuss reconstructions of the past in the present at different public and private levels through historiography photography exhibitions monuments memorials collective and individual discourses cyberspace religion and performance By offering a comparative perspective on the United States and West Africa as well as on Western Europe South America and the Caribbean the chapters offer new possibilities to explore the resurgence of the memory of slavery as a transnational movement in our contemporary world Historical Dictionary of Women in

Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon,2016-03-04 African women s history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women s daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa Interpreting and Explaining Transcendence Robert A. Yelle,Jenny Ponzio,2021-09-07 In this volume an interdisciplinary group of scholars uses history sociology anthropology and semiotics to approach Transcendence as a human phenomenon and shows the unavoidability of thinking with and through the Beyond Religious experience has often been defined as an encounter with a transcendent God Yet humans arguably have always tried to get outside or beyond themselves and society The drive to exceed some limit or condition of finitude is an eduring aspect of culture even in a disenchanted society that may have cut off most paths of access to the Beyond The contributors to this volume demonstrate the humanity of Transcendence in various ways as an effort to get beyond our crass physical materiality as spiritual entrepreneurship as the ecstasy of rituals of possession and as a literary aesthetic and semiotic event These efforts build from a shared conviction that Transcendence is thoroughly human and accordingly avoid purely confessional and parochial approaches while taking seriously the various claims and behavioral expressions of traditions in which Transcendence has been understood in theological terms T&T Clark Handbook of Anthropology and the Hebrew Bible

Emanuel Pfoh,2022-12-15 This handbook presents an overview of the main approaches from social and cultural anthropology to the Hebrew Bible Since the late 19th century biblical scholarship has addressed issues and themes related to biblical stories from a perspective which could now be considered socio anthropological It is however only since the 1960s that biblical scholars have started to produce readings and incorporate analytical models drawn directly from social anthropology to widen the interpretive scope of the social and historical data contained in the biblical sources The handbook is arranged into two main thematic parts Part 1 assesses the place of the Bible in social anthropology examines the contribution of ethnoarchaeology to the recovery of the social world of Iron Age Palestine and offers insights from the anthropology of the Mediterranean for the interpretation of the biblical stories Part 2 provides a series of case studies on anthropological themes arising in the Hebrew Bible These include kinship and social organisation death cultural and collective memory and ritualism Contributors also examine how the biblical stories reveal dynamics of power and authority gender and honour and shame and how socio anthropological approaches can reveal these narratives and deepen our knowledge of the human societies and cultural context of the texts Bringing together the expertise of scholars of the Hebrew Bible and Biblical Archaeology this ethnographic introduction prompts new questions into our understanding of anthropology and the Bible

Miracles : 2 Volumes Craig S. Keener, 2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship s 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook com s Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume s argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume s argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports Holy Water and Evil Spirits Katharina Wilkens, 2011 In Tanzania the Marian Faith Healing Ministry offers Catholic healing rituals under the patronage of the Virgin Mary Exorcism and a special water service are central to the healing process People bring physical spiritual and social afflictions before the group's leader Felicien Nkwera Combining the perspectives of the study of religions and medical anthropology this book analyzes Nkwera's pastoral texts and the personal healing narratives of the members Thus a complex image of the healing process is created and framed within its Tanzanian interreligious context and its global conservative Catholic context Series Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 47 Violence and the World's Religious Traditions Mark Juergensmeyer, Margo Kitts, Michael K. Jerryson, 2017 An introductory survey of the whole field of study of religion and violence It includes overviews of major religious traditions and it analyzes patterns and themes relating to religious violence It also explores major analytic approaches and forges new directions in the study of this important emerging field The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Medicine, and Health Dorothea Lüddeckens, Philipp Hetmanczyk, Pamela E. Klassen, Justin B. Stein, 2021-11-24 The relationships between religion spirituality health biomedical institutions complementary and alternative healing systems are widely discussed today While many of these debates revolve around the biomedical legitimacy of religious modes of healing the market for them continues to grow The Routledge Handbook of Religion Medicine and Health is an outstanding reference source to the key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject and is the first collection of its kind Comprising over thirty five chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into five parts Healing practices with religious roots and frames Religious actors in and around the medical field Organizing infrastructures of religion and medicine pluralism and competition Boundary making between religion and medicine Religion and epidemics Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including health and healing religiosity spirituality biomedicine medicalization complementary medicine medical therapy efficacy agency and the nexus of body mind and spirit The Routledge Handbook of Religion Medicine and Health is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies The Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as sociology anthropology and medicine Pentecostalism in Africa, 2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa's religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power Histories of

Religious Thought and Practice in Africa PROFESSOR LOUIS. BRENNER, 2024-12-17 This book is a richly detailed comparative analysis of endogenous Muslim and Christian religious thought and practice in sub Saharan Africa Organized thematically the book presents a conceptual and analytical framework for the study of religious traditions as complex and constantly evolving social phenomena The most salient theme in the book is how different religious traditions defined and provided for the personal and communal wellbeing of their adherents Other major themes explore how religious traditions have influenced one another how religious practitioners conceptualized and interacted with spiritual entities how religious knowledge and expertise were acquired and transmitted how rituals were organized and structured in order to achieve their aims and how rituals affected those who performed them Additional topics analysed include the personalization of relationships with spiritual entities the gendering of religious thought and practice how personal transformative rituals were conceptualized and enacted with reference to stages of the life cycle such as birth marriage and death and how suffering was seen as integral to the process of personal transformation Overall the book engages with issues that continue to animate the study of religious thought and practice in Africa and African studies more generally Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements Peter Clarke, 2004-03 An essential companion to both research and scholarship upon which undergraduates postgraduates lecturers and researchers can all be expected to draw Translocal Connections across the Indian Ocean , 2018-06-26 The book describes the worlds where Swahili is spoken as multi centred contexts that cannot be thought of as located in a specific coastal area of Kenya or Tanzania The articles presented discuss a range of geographical areas where Swahili is spoken from Somalia to Mozambique along the Indian Ocean in Europe and the US In an attempt to de essentialize the concepts of translocality and cosmopolitanism the emphasis of the book is on translocality as experienced by different social strata and by gender and cosmopolitanism as an acquired attitude Contributors are Katrin Bromber Gerard van de Bruinhorst Francesca Declich Rebecca Gearhart Mafazy Linda Giles Ida Hadjivayanis Mohamed Kassim Kjersti Larsen Mohamed Saleh Maria Suriano Sandra Vianello Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women s issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women s studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects Tongnaab Jean Allman, John Parker, 2005-11-18 For many Africanist historians traditional religion is simply a starting point for measuring the historic impact of Christianity and Islam In Tongnaab Jean Allman and John Parker challenge the distinction between tradition and modernity by tracing the movement and mutation of the powerful Talensi god and ancestor shrine Tongnaab from the savanna of northern Ghana through the forests and coastal plains of the south Using a wide range of written oral and iconographic sources Allman and Parker uncover the historical dynamics of cross cultural religious belief and practice They reveal how Tongnaab has been intertwined with many themes and events in West African history the slave trade colonial conquest and rule capitalist agriculture and mining labor migration shifting ethnicities the production of ethnographic knowledge and the political projects that brought about the modern nation state This rich and original book shows that indigenous religion has been at the center of dramatic social and economic changes stretching from the slave trade to the tourist trade
