Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry Cox, Ronald Fundis, 2022-03-22 This collection of previously unpublished essays addresses a wide range of topics relevant to the on going debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena The authors have attempted to contribute their experiences insights and research results to clarify rather than obfuscate Topic coverage is broad however content depth is not sacrificed The diversity of authors backgrounds both geographical and disciplinary also serves to make this volume unique The chapters in this volume offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry R. Cox, Ronald J. Fundis, 1992 Addresses a range of topics relevant to the debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena This work contains chapters that offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles Death, Distress, and Solidarity Robert Kastenbaum, 2019-03-25 In preparing this special issue of Omega The Journal of Death and Dying we choose to consider solidarity in a somewhat larger perspective than the other one usually adopted by a clear majority of social support studies This perspective gives priority to microscopic immediate direct transactions between a focal individual the one affected by the prospect of soon to come death and two classes of people those included in the core of that person s personal network and the health care personnel treating and accompanying soon to die people many of them already advanced into agony Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Making Sense of

Death Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life

Fading away Betty Davies PhD., 2020-03-26 This book comes out of an in depth qualitative study of the experiences of twenty three families in which one parent was dying of cancer The study attempted to better understand the impact of terminal illness on the entire family system and sought to develop a theoretical framework that would guide the assessment of and services to such families As a result of interviews with patients spouses and their adult children over three phases of the study the process of fading away was identified and conceptualized in terms of various phases which contributed to this process The book is not a research report but rather presents more generally the ideas that developed from the study with two purposes to increase the reader's understanding of particular experiences that families encounter when dealing with terminal illness specifically cancer The intended readership also includes families themselves to propose guidelines for care to be considered by practitioners working with such families
