Spiritual Leadership In A Secular Age Building Bridges Instead Of Barriers:

Spiritual Leadership in a Secular Age Edward H Hammett, 2013-05-09 Recovering Hope for Your Church Edward H Hammett, 2014-08-30 Why seems to be on the lips of many church judicatory and denominational leaders today Why has our church plateaued Why are so few young leaders going into church based ministries Why are so few interested in church these days Recovering Hope uncovers the whys creating space to embrace new realities commit to the tough road of recovery and develop new skills structures and ministry designs through a process of spiritual discernment congregational coaching and a deeper reliance on the work and ministry of the Holy Spirit Eddie Hammett a Professional Certified Coach and Church and Clergy Coach for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina provides a step by step process of hope and health to encourage guide and inspire pastors leaders churches regions and denominations that recovery of hope is possible A TCP Leadership Series title Reaching People under 30 while Keeping People over 60 Edward H Hammett, 2015-11-10 Seasoned church consultant Edward H Hammett shares his latest insights and suggestions for churches seeking to serve all generations This is an updated version of Hammett s 2007 book Reaching People Under 40 while Keeping People Over 60 that expands the reach another decade and emphasizes diversity with insight from new contributors Paul L Anderson and Cornell Thomas A TCP Books title Spiritual Dimensions of Team Alan Wright, 2010-03-01 Spiritual Dimensions of Team is the primary tool that will help churches become effective team based organizations Teams as dynamic units are important to organizations and this book offers a new and unique approach to creating effective teams By using parables and giving ways to put the insights to work Wright gives you a toolbox of information that can change your church This book brings together in one message a behavioral understanding of team effectiveness specific biblical principles combined with those practices and powerful learning exercises which will move teams from theory to life practice A TCP Leadership Series title Lead Strong Philip J. Rasmussen, 2020-10-08 New leaders have tremendous potential to be the next generation of church leaders but for many biblical character development was not a foundational part of growing up Pastor Philip J Rasmussen vice president of church relations and spiritual formation at Northwest University draws on his experience working closely with pastors and students to outline the problems to developing the next generation of church leaders as well as solutions He knows how concerned church leaders are with finding qualified ministerial replacements but he also knows most students have not been prepared to live a life in ministry If they don t get the guidance they need a shortage of qualified individuals looms on the horizon Lead Strong starts with the premise that a person must fully embrace the Fruit of Spirit as the vital elements for character development When the Fruit of Spirit is present in a believer s life essential leadership qualities will naturally flow as the leader influences people This book can be used for ministry training sessions small group studies or one s individual devotional development Its purpose is to reveal the role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer and to clearly describe the fruit that His presence should bear in one's character Recreating the Church Richard L Hamm, 2009-08-01 Mainline denominations in the United States are in crisis. These institutions created in and for modernity are now facing a changed postmodern culture. Hamm faces the crisis, examining its origins and offers sound advice on how to lead to church to make the adaptive changes needed to thrive in postmodern times. A TCP Leadership Series title The Calling of Congregational Leadership Larry L. McSwain, 2013-05-30 Leading is a calling from God but that doesn't mean it is easy. There are choices to be made about what your congregation believes, how your church organizes for effective ministry and how your church serves the settings of which you are a part. The good news is that others have gone before you. Author Larry L. McSwain's forty years of experience can help guide you through these choices. Rooted in research, The Calling of Congregational Leadership teaches a three-pronged approach to congregational leadership: being a good leader, the knowledge needed by the leader, and the managing of ministry leadership. By using this practical, holistic approach to leading congregations, McSwain shows you how to use your church's potential for conveying the power of God in the lives you touch. The Calling of Congregational Leadership is for those who seek to enlarge the understanding of their leadership to make their communities of faith more vital and more reflective of the mission of God in the world.

Coaching for Christian Leaders Chad Hall, Linda Miller, 2007-05-01 Miller and Hall center totally on the nature and ministry of Christian coaching. They provide an overview of the growth and development of coaching and its application to Christian ministry. They show core coaching skills and essential and supporting coaching skills. The core skills of focused listening and asking powerful questions reappear throughout the book as the authors demonstrate in real-life situations how to use them. A TCP Leadership Series title Reaching People Under 40 while Keeping People over 60 Edward H. Hammett, 2007-02-01 Many established churches are facing a number of challenges in today's increasingly secular culture. Such a shift in many communities creates a challenge of church growth and church health when it seems that satisfying the needs of one group creates barriers to reaching another group. So many are asking, "How do you keep people over sixty years of age who often hold church culture values while at the same time reach people under forty who often hold postmodern values?" If a church is interested in growing, this situation becomes a major challenge. Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at the church as it seeks to function in a new world. It looks at the differences in the generations and at postmodernism not just a generational difference but a global change. Most importantly, Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at what a church can do in this new age to help the church survive and thrive. Foreword by Bill Easum. A TCP Leadership Series title Sacro-Egoism John S. Knox, 2016-05-10 Sacro Egoism: The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West discusses the relationship between secularization, participation in religious practices and belief, and the emergence of radical individualized expressions of faith in the West. Using McMinnville, Oregon as a case study, it presents the data collected and analyzed from several churches, denominations, and spiritual settings in that unassuming town and compares it to the results of Heelas and Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution project, arriving at a provocative conclusion Rather than abandoning Christianity for alternative spirituality practices McMinnville citizens still feel strongly about their Christian faith taking their spiritual walk to a more personal level than ever before in church history Utilizing both quantitative and qualitative research along with personal stories of faith and exploration from McMinnville residents themselves Sacro Egoism The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West tells a story of radical individualists who have become the highest religious authority in their lives even over the church the Bible and traditional Christian society
