Spirituality And Social Liberation:

Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology Understanding Spirituality and the Sacred in Social Work Practice Mary Jo McVeigh, Joel Hollier, Jioji Ravulo, 2025-03-31 Social work is constantly epistemically evolving and embracing diverse bodies of knowledge to inform its ontology and practice frameworks Over the years the impact of feminist post colonial and queer theory for example has broadened the social work lens and invited a welcome departure from dominant Westernised patriarchal and positivist paradigms However the separation of the spiritual realm from casework clinical community and group work traditions of social work remained steadfast The last decade or so has seen forages into the issues of social work and spirituality This examination into spirituality and social work has shown that for many service users spiritual practices be they religious or non religious are important in their lives and their way out of difficulties Concurrently relationships between socio political movements and global religions have grown increasingly complex To create a truly holistic approach to the needs of service users it is important that social work policy and practice give voice to these complexities and understand the place of spirituality within service delivery This book critically reflects upon and discusses the intersecting role of spirituality in the lives of people who access social work services By gathering contributions from people with lived experience practitioners and academics this book will explore a comprehensive range of issues opening the area of spirituality to current critical socio political and cultural thought It will be of interest to all social work scholars students and practitioners Divine Healing: The Formative Years: 1830-1890 James Robinson, 2011-04-13 Divine healing is commonly practiced today throughout Christendom and plays a significant part in the advance of Christianity in Latin America Africa and Asia Such wide acceptance of the doctrine within Protestantism did not come without hesitation or controversy The prevailing view saw suffering as a divine chastening designed for growth in personal holiness and something to be faced with submission and endurance It was not until the nineteenth century that this understanding began to be seriously questioned This book details those individuals and movements that proved radical enough in their theology and practice to play a part in overturning mainstream opinion on suffering James Robinson opens up a treasury of largely unknown or forgotten material that extends our understanding of Victorian Christianity and the precursors to the Pentecostal revival that helped shape Christianity in the twentieth century The Spirit and the Salvation of the Urban Poor Brandon Kertson, 2019-11-15 Poverty What is it good for Absolutely nothing Still poverty is an ever present reality even in so called first world nations like the United States If the Holy Spirit is the member of the Trinity that is ever present in our world perhaps the Spirit can be a resource to address poverty In this pneumatological theology of poverty Brandon Kertson explores the current state of poverty in the United States arguing its complexities also require complex answers demanding a pneumatological approach that has yet to be offered Using Renewal theology and pneumatology Kertson develops a pneumatological four fold gospel based on Jesus pneumatic declaration of Luke 4 He explores how the Spirit addresses poverty through Jesus and the historic and global church and how we can begin to address poverty through the Spirit today The Spirit as savior baptizer healer and entelechy of the kingdom lays the foundation for a holistic response to the complex problem of poverty in our country

Total Liberation Ruben L. F. Habito, 2006-09-01 What is Zen Buddhism What is its value for Christians How does it relate to Christian beliefs How does Zen relate to the world and to changing it Total Liberation explores these and other questions about Zen and Christianity Habito has two basic aims First he demonstrates the relevance of Zen to a contemporary Christian spirituality comparing Zen insights to the often overly cerebral qualities of Western Christianity Second he shows how a blending of Zen and Christian spirituality complement and sustain a social active role in the world While an important dimension of Zen involves contemplation and personal growth Habito points out that this basic ideal ultimately expands to embrace all of creation and not just the individual self Similarly the Christian spiritual relationship with God finds its expression not only in the personal and contemplative but in action Total Liberation defines true spirituality as engagement with rather than disassociation from the social dimension It shows that Zen no less than Christian spirituality must lead to active involvement and struggle against social violence and oppression

Perspectives in Pentecostal Eschatologies Peter Althouse, Robby Waddell, 2010-09-08 During the mid twentieth century Pentecostal theology was co opted by fundamentalism and its dispensational brand of millennial eschatology Fundamentalist dispensationalism not only reinterpreted the original Pentecostal vision of the latter rain outpouring of the Spirit in the last days but undercut its raison d etre as a people empowered by the Spirit of Pentecost to participate in the kingdom of God Yet eschatology is much broader than twentieth century dispensationalism and Pentecostal eschatology is diverse reflecting the diversity of Pentecostal and Charismatic spiritualities There is no one Pentecostal eschatology but many Pentecostal eschatologies This collection of essays from established scholars and rising stars offers fresh perspectives in eschatology for the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements The fresh readings of eschatology in this volume are valuable because they demonstrate that Pentecostals no longer need to look to others to interpret their theology for them but can stand as scholars and thinkers in their own right

Pentecostal Experience Peter D. Neumann, 2012-08-22 Pentecostals are known for an experiential spirituality that emphasizes immediate encounters with God through the Holy Spirit But how should such experience be understood Is it in fact quite so immediate Neumann argues that Pentecostal experience of God is mediated by the Spirit s work through Scripture the Christian tradition and the broader cultural context Using the work of three contemporary Pentecostal theologians Frank D Macchia Simon K H Chan and Amos Yong the book demonstrates that a mediated view of experience of God is forging a more mature Pentecostal theology As further evidence of this maturation Neumann engages these Pentecostal theologians in ecumenical dialogue with leading representatives from Roman Catholic

Eastern Orthodox and Protestant traditions "Jesus Is Victor!" Christian T. Collins Winn, 2009-01-01 IN THIS INNOVATIVE WORK Christian T Collins Winn examines the role played by the Pietist pastors Johann Christoph Blumhardt 1805 1880 and Christoph Friedrich Blumhardt 1842 1919 in the development of Karl Barth s theology The disparate theological themes and dynamics of the two Blumhardts were crystallized in their eschatology and Collins Winn argues that as early as 1916 Barth had appropriated this Blumhardtian eschatological deposit in ways fundamental to his own theological development Against the grain of current Barth scholarship this book establishes how the theology of the Blumhardts though critically reconstructed was not merely an episodic influence on Barth s work Instead the Blumhardts had a complex and enduring impact on Barth such that their imprint can be detected even in the mature theology of his Church Dogmatics In treading new ground into Barth s theological formation Jesus Is Victor represents an important contribution to the field of Barth studies The Emergence of Liberation Theology Christian Smith, 1991-08-27 Liberation theology is a school of Roman Catholic thought which teaches that a primary duty of the church must be to promote social and economic justice In this book Christian Smith explains how and why the liberation theology movement emerged and succeeded when and where it did
