Splitting Up Catherine Itzin,1980 The Virago Story Catherine Riley,2018-04-23 The 1970s witnessed a renaissance in women's print culture as feminist presses and bookshops sprang up in the wake of the second wave women's movement. At four decades remove from that heady era however the landscape looks dramatically different with only one press from the period still active in contemporary publishing Virago. This engaging history explains how from modest beginnings Virago managed to weather epochal transformations in gender politics literary culture and the book publishing business. Drawing on original interviews with many of the press's principal figures it gives a compelling account of Virago's place in recent women's history while also reflecting on the fraught relationship between activism and commerce.

The Abolitionists Ronald Fletcher,2013-10-18 In The Abolitionists a companion volume to The Shaking of the Foundations Ronald Fletcher turns his attention to those critics who have advocated the abolition of the family. Blaming the strength of the family for all discontents they see the family as the deeply entrenched last bastion of an exploitative capitalist society an obstacle to social progress and a prop for patriarchy. These new critics have exerted a growing influence throughout the 1970s and 1980s and this is the first book to subject them to a systematic critical appraisal. The Abolitionists is a controversial and impressive defence of the modern family shaped by a century and a half of humane reform.

Having To (Routledge Revivals) E. Cashmore,2013-10-14 First published in 1985 Having To summarises the situation of more than a million parents in the UK alone that survive as single parents. They portray stories that will provoke many questions about the state of the nuclear family.

The Family: Change or Continuity? Faith Robertson Elliot,1986-10-27 Faith Elliot's book has a coherence unusual in a textbook. As its title suggests it directs our attention to change and continuity in the family. It reviews debates about the biological origins of the nuclear family and gender roles accounts of the development of the conjugal family as the dominant family form in modern Western societies and of change in the roles of men and women within and without the family the remodelling of the conjugal family consequent on the legitimization of divorce and the emergence of one parent families and remarriage families and the development of alternative lifestyles as exemplified in unmarried cohabitation same sex pairings and group living. The book considers Marxist and feminist approaches alongside the functional approaches which have been more traditional in the sociological study of the family.

Are marriages made in heaven In reality many people need a little help in the arrangement of such matters whether from Jewish shadkhans matchmakers go betweens computer or video dating agencies marriage bureaux Asian arranged marriages gay dating agencies or personal ads Originally published in 1984 the author's clear sighted look at the mating trade takes some of the mystique away from the subject and is the first serious and detailed account of the third party in marriage Dr Mullan looks at the singles scene and the arranged marriage historically and cross culturally and makes it clear that there is nothing necessarily odd or deviant about the mating trade It is a business like any other and as long as people continue to want perfect partners marriage permanent relationships dates and sex and while evolving social structures make such demands ever more difficult to meet the business will thrive It could even expand and grow but the author believes that first it will have to clean up its act between parents and children and disintegration of extended family ties are more perceived than actual Their evidence suggests that the Middletown family seems to be stronger and more tolerant with closer bonds and greater marital satisfaction than fifty years ago Instead of breaking it apart the pressures of modern society may have drawn the family closer together Liberating Economics, Second Edition Drucilla Barker, Suzanne Bergeron, Susan F.
