Tempestuous Petticoat; the Story of an Invincible Edwardian [by] Clare Leighton Clare Leighton, Tempestuous Petticoat Clare Leighton, 1947 Life of Marie Connor Leighton The Art of the Reprint Rosalind Parry, 2023-03-30 A genuinely original work The Art of the Reprint establishes the reprint as a vital area of study In tightly curated encounters between extraordinary twentieth century artists and beloved nineteenth century novels Clare Leighton travels to Dorset to minutely observe Thomas Hardy s landscape for a 1929 The Return of the Native 1878 Rockwell Kent channels his many sea journeys into a 1930 Moby Dick 1851 Fritz Eichenberg transposes the churn and isolation of fleeing Nazi Germany onto Expressionistic engravings for Charlotte Bront s Jane Eyre 1847 and Joan Hassall elucidates a bright social world at miniature scale for a 1975 set of The Complete Novels of Jane Austen 1787 1817 Mediators between text and book and author and reader these artists interpreted these novels and then illustrated their interpretations stunningly and strangely in wood ink and paper for everyday readers A History of Milan Under the Sforza Cecilia Mary Ady, 1907 A Southern Life Laurence G. Avery, 2017-02-15 This exceptional collection provides new insight into the life of North Carolina writer and activist Paul Green 1894 1981 the first southern playwright to attract international acclaim for his socially conscious dramas Green who taught philosophy and drama at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill won the Pulitzer Prize in 1927 for In Abraham s Bosom an authentic drama of black life Among his other Broadway productions were Native Son and Johnny Johnson From the 1930s onward Green created fifteen outdoor historical productions known as symphonic dramas thereby inventing a distinctly American theater form These include The Lost Colony 1937 which is still performed today Laurence Avery has selected and annotated the 329 letters in this volume from over 9 000 existing pieces The letters to such figures as Sherwood Anderson Langston Hughes Richard Wright John Dos Passos Zora Neale Hurston and others interested in the arts and human rights in the South are alive with the intellect buoyant spirit and sensitivity to the human condition that made Green such an inspiring force in the emerging New South Avery s introduction and full bibliography of the playwright s works and first productions give readers a context for understanding Green s life and times The Politics of Domestic Authority in Britain since 1800 L. Delap, B. Griffin, A. Wills, 2009-08-13 This collection of essays explores the broad range of influences which have shaped the distribution of authority within British homes and families religion commercial advertising governments welfare professionals medical experts psychologists and the law Vera Brittain and the First World War Mark Bostridge, 2014-12-04 The inspiration for the film Testament of Youth this book from Mark Bostridge Vera Brittain s biographer tells the story of a remarkable woman and her extraordinary account of the destructive power of war In the midst of her studies at Oxford when war broke out across Europe Vera Brittain left university in 1915 to become a V A D Voluntary Aid Detachment nurse treating soldiers in London Malta and Etaples in France The events of the First World War were to have an enormous impact on her life Four of Brittain s closest friends including her fianc Roland Leighton and her brother Edward Brittain MC were killed in action sparking a lifelong commitment to pacifism In 1933 she published Testament of Youth the first of three books dealing with her experience of war In equal measures courageous tragic and deeply fascinating Testament of Youth is one of the most compelling and important works of war literature ever to have been written by a British woman Mark Bostridge's Vera Brittain and the First World War explores the effects of the First World War on Vera Brittain both in terms of her personal life and in terms of its effect on her development as a writer and her eventual decision to become a pacifist Taking advantage of the interest generated by the film it will bring her story to a new generation and incorporate the most up to date research The book includes a short essay From Book to Film describing the process of turning Testament of Youth into a major feature film This includes interviews with the production staff and actors as well as with members of Vera Brittain's family including Shirley Williams Original Illustrations of English Constitutional History Dudley Julius Medley, 1910 Edinburgh History of Children's Periodicals Michelle J. Smith, Beth Rodgers, Kristine Moruzi, 2024-04-30 Since the publication of the first children's periodical in the 1750s magazines have been an affordable and accessible way for children to read and form virtual communities Despite the range of children's periodicals that exist they have not been studied to the same extent as children's literature The Edinburgh History of Children's Periodicals marks the first major history of magazines for young people from the mid eighteenth century to the present Bringing together periodicals from Britain Ireland North America Australia New Zealand and India this book explores the roles of gender race and national identity in the construction of children as readers and writers It provides new insights both into how child readers shaped the magazines they read and how magazines have encouraged children to view themselves as political and world subjects The Bookman, 1904 A Short History of British Colonial Policy Hugh Edward Egerton, 1910 A History of Egypt: Under Roman rule William Matthew Flinders Petrie, 1898 A Short History of Political Economy in England Langford Lovell Price, 1905 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Quarterly Guide for Readers Finsbury (England). Public Library, 1901 A History of Egypt William Matthew Flinders Petrie, 1898 People, Places, Things - Essays by Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Bowen, 2008-11-26 This volume collects for the first time essays published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime as well as essays which have never been published before The range of subjects alone makes these essays indispensable reading Throughout her career Elizabeth Bowen the Anglo Irish novelist and short story writer also wrote literary essays that display a shrewd generous intelligence Always sensitive to underlying tensions she evokes the particular climate of countries and places in Hungary Prague and the Crisis and Bowen's Court In Britain in Autumn she records the strained atmosphere of the blitz as no other writer does Immediately after the war she reported on the International Peace Conference in Paris in a series of essays that are startling in their evocation of tense diplomacy among international delegates scrabbling to define the boundaries of Europe and the stakes of the Cold War The aftershock of war registers poignantly in Opening Up the House owners evacuated during the war return to their houses empty since 1939 Other essays in this volume especially those on James Joyce Jane Austen and the technique of writing offer indispensable mid century evaluations of the state of literature The essays assembled in this volume were published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen s lifetime She herself did not gather them into any collection Some of these essays exist only as typescript drafts and are published here for the first time Bowen s observations on age toys disappointment charm and manners place her among the very best literary essayists of the modernist period Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1843 The Idea of Nature in Disney Animation David Whitley,2016-03-03 In the second edition of The Idea of Nature in Disney Animation David Whitley updates his 2008 book to reflect recent developments in Disney and Disney Pixar animation such as the apocalyptic tale of earth s failed ecosystem WALL E As Whitley has shown and Disney s newest films continue to demonstrate the messages animated films convey about the natural world are of crucial importance to their child viewers Beginning with Snow White Whitley examines a wide range of Disney s feature animations in which images of wild nature are central to the narrative He challenges the notion that the sentimentality of the Disney aesthetic an oft criticized aspect of such films as Bambi The Jungle Book Pocahontas Beauty and the Beast and Finding Nemo necessarily prevents audiences from developing a critical awareness of contested environmental issues On the contrary even as the films communicate the central ideologies of the times in which they were produced they also express the ambiguities and tensions that underlie these dominant values In distinguishing among the effects produced by each film and revealing the diverse ways in which images of nature are mediated Whitley urges us towards a more complex interpretation of the classic Disney canon and makes an important contribution to our understanding of the role popular art plays in shaping the emotions and ideas that are central to contemporary experience
