Performing American Masculinities Elwood Watson, Marc E. Shaw, 2011-04-21 Elwood Watson is Professor of History African Studies and Gender Studies at East Tennessee State University No Debate George Farah, 2011-01-04 Broadcast to tens of millions of Americans the presidential debates are the Super Bowl of politics A good performance before the cameras can vault a contender to the front of the pack while a gaffe spells national embarrassment and can savage a candidacy The slim margin for error has led the two major parties to seek and achieve under the aegis of the bipartisan Commission on Presidential Debates tight control through scripting severe time limits and the exclusion of third party candidates In No Debate author and lobbyist George Farah argues that these staged recitations make a mockery of free and fair presidential elections With urgency and clarity this book reviews the history of presidential debates the impact of the debates since the advent of television the role of the League of Women Voters the antidemocratic activity of the CPD and the specific ways that the Republicans and Democrats collude to remove all spontaneity from the debates themselves The author presents the complete text of a previously unreleased secret document between the Republicans and Democrats that reveals the degree to which the two parties not the CPD dictate the terms of the debates In the final chapter Farah lays out a compelling strategy for restoring the presidential debates as a nonpartisan unscripted public events that help citizens not corporations or campaign managers decide who is going to run the White House The Tabloid Culture Reader Biressi, Anita, Nunn, Heather, 2007-12-01 The Tabloid Culture Reader provides an accessible and useful introduction to the field How Zombies Conquered Popular Culture Kyle William Bishop, 2015-10-09 Since the early

New Television, Globalisation, and the East Asian Cultural Imagination Michael Keane, Anthony Y.H. Fung, Albert Moran, 2007-02-01 Challenging assumptions that have underpinned critiques of globalisation and combining cultural theory with media industry analysis Keane Fung and Moran give a groundbreaking account of the evolution of television in the post broadcasting era and how programming ideas are creatively redeveloped and franchised in East Asia In this first comprehensive study of television program adaptation across cultures the authors argue that adaptation transfer and recycling of content are multiplying to the point of marginalising other economic and cultural practices They also show that significant re modelling of local TV production practices occur when adaptation is genuinely responsive to local values Examples of East Asian format adaptations include Survivor Who Wants to be a Millionaire The Weakest Link Coronation Street and Idol theory with anthropological theory shifting away from the discussion of gender categories and identities that have often constituted a central concern of queer theory and instead exploring the queer elements of contexts in which they are not normally apparent Engaging with a number of apparently non sexual topics including embodiment and fieldwork regimes of value gifts and commodities diversity discourses biological essentialisms intersectionality the philosophy of Bergson and Deleuze and the representation of heterosexuality in popular culture this book moves to discuss central concerns of contemporary anthropology drawing on both the latest anthropological research as well as classic theories In broadening the field of queer anthropology and opening queer theory to a number of new themes both empirical and theoretical Anthropological Explorations in Queer Theory will appeal not only to anthropologists and queer theorists but also to geographers and sociologists concerned with questions of ontology materiality and gender and sexuality
