Tagore, 1916 An Earthy Entanglement with Spirituality Elizabeth Moore Willingham, 2024-07-15 An Earthy Entanglement with Spirituality offers compelling perspectives on the human spirit as represented in literature and art Authors approach the inquiry using distinct critical approaches to varied primary sources poetry of various genres and periods Shakespearean drama contemporary theater Renaissance sculpture and the novel short story sketch and dialogue The Shirt Factory Ian Wedde, 2014-04-01 Selected stories from one of New Zealand's most well known authors Ian Wedde Largely written in the years between 1970 and 1980 the collection includes the award winning Dick Seddon's Great Dive The Intersecting Realities and Fictions of Virginia Woolf and Colette Helen Southworth, 2004 What might the author of Mrs Dalloway and A Room of One's Own have in common with the author of the Claudine series and The Pure and the Impure Resisting long held interpretations that Colette and Virginia Woolf had little in common Southworth shows here the links between the two famous writers both real and imagined Often cast in their diametrically opposed roles of elitist bluestocking and risque music hall performer critics have overlooked the many ways in which the lives and works of Woolf and Colette intersect This study provides a broad ranging introduction to the biographical stylistic and thematic ties that link the lives and works of Britain's and France's first ladies of letters of the early twentieth century Situating the two writers within an international network of artists and literati including Jacques Emile Blanche Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge Winnie de Polignac Gisele Freund Sylvia Beach and Adrienne Monnier Vita Sackville West and Violet Trefusis this study complicates conceptions of the differences national sexual cultural and intellectual which have kept these two women apart by placing these same differences at its center Southworth develops work already undertaken on Woolf's contacts with France and adds to the body of comparative work on Woolf and her contemporaries This study also highlights as yet unexplored connections between Colette and her British and American peers Southworth's book makes a significant contribution to gay and lesbian studies and the study of modernist culture It also demonstrates the potential of social network theory for literary studies

Tales in Colour and Other Stories Kunzang Choden,2012-06-25 These deceptively simple stories uncover both the complexity and irony of women s lives in Bhutan today They show how ordinary lives choices and experiences are both remarkable and poignant In I am a Small Person a despised woman uses her femininity as a means to control a man the young girl in I Won t ask Mother suddenly feels empowered and confident when she makes a decision without consulting her mother All the stories take place in rural settings to which creeping urbanisation brings gradual change and tensions surface between the new and the old or the traditional and the modern For many rural women being able to connect to the city and all its perceived power and glamour is a very real aspiration This yearning is exemplified in Look at her Belly Button where a young woman effortlessly slips out of the role of a farmer to become a real Bhutanese urbanite Published by Zubaan
