Teodoro Gonzalez De Leon:

Teodoro González de León : complete work Miquel Adrià, Teodoro González de León, William J. R. Curtis, 2004 The story of Mexican architecture in the second half of the twentieth century cannot be told without the work of Teodoro Gonzalez de Leon His banks civic buildings museums and office complexes have contributed to defining the urban texture of a large part of Mexico the product of a conception of monumentality in which modernity and timelessness seem to coexist Architect urbanist painter and sculptor Gozalez de Leon is also a tireless promoter of architecture understood as a cultural phenomenon The publication of the complete works of Teodoro Gonzalez de Leon makes it possible to take in a single glance more than fifty years of militant commitment to the discipline Some of the architect s occasional writings have been inserted into the book like his own urban icons throughout the city to illustrate the constant dialectic between work and reflection The conceptual and constructive rigor of Teodoro Gonzalez de Leon has made possible a forceful and original body of work monumental unique at once Mexican and universal His works are conceived as assemblages possessing a singular logic and reality each one is a paragraph a chapter in a story in a method that describes how to make and to understand architecture

Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture Peter Herrle, Stephanus Schmitz, 2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore      The Architecture and Cities of Northern Mexico from Independence to the Present Edward R. Burian, 2015-08-15 The states of Northern Mexico Tamaulipas Nuevo León Coahuila Chihuahua Durango

Sonora Sinaloa and Baja California Norte and Sur have architecture urbanism and landscape design that offer numerous lessons in how to build well but this constructed environment is largely undervalued or unknown To make this architecture better known to a wide professional academic and public audience this book presents the first comprehensive overview in either English or Spanish of the architecture urban landscapes and cities of Northern Mexico from the country's emergence as a modern nation in 1821 to the present day Profusely illustrated with color and black and white photographs maps and analytical drawings of urban cores of major cities The Architecture and Cities of Northern Mexico systematically examines significant works of architecture in large cities and small towns in each state from the earliest buildings in the urban core to the newest at the periphery Edward R Burian describes the most memorable works of architecture in each city in greater detail in terms of their spatial organization materials and sensory experience He also includes a concise geographical and historical summary of the region that provides a useful background for the discussions of the works of architecture Burian concludes the book with a brief commentary on lessons learned and possible futures for the architectural culture of the region as well as the first comprehensive biographical listing of the architects practicing in Northern Mexico during the past two centuries

Teodoro González de León Teodoro González de León, 1994 The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture Celia Esther Arredondo Zambrano, 2023-05-03 This book presents the making of Mexican Modernist architecture through five power structures academic social status economic political gender and postcolonial and by interviews and analysis of 13 key Mexican architects These include Luis Barragán José Villagrán García Juan O'Gorman Pedro Ramírez Vázquez Agustín Hernández Abraham Zabludovsky Carlos Mijares Ricardo Legorreta Juan José Díaz Infante Enrique Norten Alberto Kalach Javier Sordo Madaleno and Clara de Buen Although the five power structures framed what was built the testimony of these Mexican architects helps us to recognize and discover subtleties and nuances Their views thereby shed light on what contributed to making Mexican Modernist architecture so distinctive globally Even if these architects were not always aware of the power structures their projects nonetheless supported discrimination marginalization and subjugation In that sense the book also reveals the extent to which these power structures are still present today The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture's uniqueness lies in uncovering the remarkable buildings that arose amid the five power structures while at the same time questioning their validity It also voices the urgent need today for a new kind of architecture outside these boundaries The book is essential reading for anyone studying Mexican and Latin American architecture Water-pollution - Proceedings Of The International Seminar On Nuclear War And Planetary Emergencies - 25th Session Richard C Ragaini,2001-07-19 Full Title Water Pollution Biotechnology Transgenic Plant Vaccine Energy Black Sea Pollution AIDS Mother Infant HIV Transmission Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathy Limits of Development Megacities Missile Proliferation and Defense Information Security Cosmic Objects Desertification Carbon Sequestration and Sustainability Climatic Changes Global Monitoring of Planet Mathematics and Democracy Science and Journalism Permanent Monitoring Panel Reports Water for Megacities Workshop Black Sea Workshop Transgenic Plants Workshop Research Resources Workshop Mother Infant HIV Transmission Workshop Sequestration and Desertification Workshop Focus Africa Workshop Building the New World Valerie Fraser,2000 Brasilia Caracas Mexico City Rio de Janeiro these are cities synonymous with some of the most innovative and progressive architecture of the twentieth century The period between 1930 and 1960 in particular when many Latin American economies expanded rapidly was an era of incomparable inventiveness and creative production as the various governments strove to shake off their colonial pasts and make public their modernising intentions This book focuses on major state funded architectural projects featuring not only the high profile prestigious building like the House of Representatives in Brasilia but also social architecture such as schools and low cost housing developments Architects like Pani Costa Reidy and Niemeyer who undertook this work with considerable autonomy and significant financial resources in effect became social planners their avant garde aesthetic and technical experimentation often being teamed with radical social agendas By 1960 the year in which Brasilia was inaugurated economic growth in the region was slowing and faith in the modernist project in general was faltering The English speaking world which had previously endorsed and even envied Latin American architectural production changed its opinion and largely dismissed it from the history of twentieth century architecture Building the New World redresses the balance It provides an accessible introduction to the most important examples of state funded modernism in Latin America during a period of almost unimaginable optimism when politicians and architects saw architecture as literally a way of building themselves out of underdevelopment and into the new world of a culturally rich and socially inclusive future Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E.
