I Die by This Country Fawzia Zouari, 2018-04-11 The first novel available to English readers by Fawzia Zouari one of the most important North African authors writing today begins with an emergency crew's arrival at a Parisian apartment Two emaciated young women sisters are brought out on stretchers To the crowd of onlookers the women's condition is mystifying for the two sisters this is the inescapable end to a tragic series of events Inspired by an actual news story from the French headlines I Die by This Country introduces us to Nac-ra and Amira Casting her mind back in the midst of the opening pages upheaval Nac-ra pieces together her fragmentary knowledge of her parents lives in rural French Algeria and their immigration to Paris in the years following Algeria's war for independence Her memories of how both she and Amira struggled to find their place as children of immigrants reveals the enormous stress of social exclusion and identity conflicts facing immigrant youth Nac ra and her family yearn for acceptance but the reader sees this dream becoming increasingly unattainable Zouari's frank prose and penetrating storytelling deftly relates the multigenerational experience of Franco Algerian immigration during the last quarter of the twentieth century As France continues like so many western countries to struggle with questions regarding national identity immigration and its colonial past the experiences depicted in this novel resonate more than ever Calendar of State Papers, Domestic Series, of the Reign of William and Mary: 1696

Fighting the Greater Jihad Cheikh Anta

Babou, 2007-09-01 In Senegal the Muridiyya a large Islamic Sufi order is the single most influential religious organization including among its numbers the nation's president Yet little is known of this sect in the West Drawn from a wide variety of archival oral and iconographic sources in Arabic French and Wolof Fighting the Greater Jihad offers an astute analysis of the founding and development of the order and a biographical study of its founder Cheikh Ahmadu Bamba Mbakke Cheikh Anta Babou explores the forging of Murid identity and pedagogy around the person and initiative of Amadu Bamba as well as the continuing reconstruction of this identity by more recent followers He makes a compelling case for reexamining the history of Muslim institutions in Africa and elsewhere in order to appreciate believers motivation and initiatives especially religious culture and education beyond the narrow confines of political collaboration and resistance Fighting the Greater Jihad also reveals how religious power is built at the intersection of genealogy knowledge and spiritual force and how this power in turn affected colonial policy Fighting the Greater Jihad will dramatically alter the perspective from which anthropologists historians and political scientists study Muslim mystical orders
