In Designing the British Post War Home Fiona Fisher explores the development of modern domestic architecture in Britain through a detailed study of the work of the successful Surrey based architectural practice of Kenneth Wood Wood s firm is representative of a geographically distinct category of post war architectural and design practice that of the small private practice that flourished in Britain s expanding suburbs after the removal of wartime building restrictions Such firms which played an important role in the development of British domestic design are currently under represented within architectural histories of the period The private house represents an important site in which new spatial material and aesthetic parameters for modern living were defined after the Second World War Within a British context the architect designed private house remained an important vehicle for the investigation of architectural ideas by second generation modernist architects and designers Through a series of case study houses designed by Wood s firm the book reconsiders the progress of modern domestic architecture in Britain and demonstrates the ways in which architectural discourse and practice intersected with the experience performance and representation of domestic modernity in post war Britain      Paris Lisa Davidson,Elizabeth Ayre,2011 Off the beaten path excursions insider tips not to be missed lists authentic experiences Cover      A History of Interior Design John F. Pile,2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap      Furniture + Architecture Edwin Heathcote,2002-10-04 Occasionally you come across a book that does everything it claims and then some This is one Blueprint Architects have been responsible for many of the modern furniture classics of the 20th century Mies s Barcelona Chair Eileen Gray s side table and Le Corbusier s chaise longue Furniture and Architecture takes a unique look at the relationship between architects and furniture design Focusing not only on classic mid 20th century design i e Eames Mies Le Corbusier and Gropius it also provides a unique insight into who will produce the next generation of classics by asking an international array of established designers to give their tips for the top young architect designers In addition it includes exclusive interviews with high profile architects as well as with key figures in furniture manufacture and retail A directory of specialist retailers who sell architect designed furniture makes this an invaluable resource for architects and the interested public The book includes comprehensive articles and images of popular modernist architects such as Erno Goldfinger Arne Jacobsen and Eero Saarinen It also features interviews with architects Alvaro Siza David Adjaye and Selfridges director Vittore Radice Lavishly illustrated with many full colour images Contains a directory of specialist retailers selling architect designed furniture      Robin and Lucienne Day Lesley Jackson,2001-03 Hailed as the British counterparts to Charles and Ray Eames Robin and Lucienne Day electrified the British design scene in the 1950s with their startling furniture and textile designs Indeed their influence over the next five decades has been so profound that their early products were recently reintroduced by Conran's Habitat. Lucienne Day pioneered the introduction of modern abstract pattern design in the textile industry. Her fabrics which oscillate between bold geometric figures and more subtle abstract patterns were produced by companies as diverse as Heal's and Liberty of London. Robin Day's influential furniture designs pioneered the use of materials such as plywood, steel and plastic. His stacking polypropylene chair right is one of the best selling chairs in the world. Robin and Lucienne Day: the first ever full length monograph on their designs features never before seen archival material along with over 250 color images of the full range of their work including furniture, ceramics, textiles, wallpaper, interiors, appliances, exhibit designs and graphics. Spanning a half century's creative output, no designer will fail to be awed by the genius seen in this book. Country Home, 2004
