Terms Of Work For Composition A Materialist Critique:

Terms of Work for Composition Bruce Horner, 2000-03-31 A cultural materialist critique of six key terms used in composition studies to define its work Keywords in Writing Studies Paul Heilker, Peter Vandenberg, 2015-02-15 Keywords in Writing Studies is an exploration of the principal ideas and ideals of an emerging academic field as they are constituted by its specialized vocabulary A sequel to the 1996 work Keywords in Composition Studies this new volume traces the evolution of the field's lexicon taking into account the wide variety of theoretical educational professional and institutional developments that have redefined it over the past two decades Contributors address the development transformation and interconnections among thirty six of the most critical terms that make up writing studies Looking beyond basic definitions or explanations they explore the multiple layers of meaning within the terms that writing scholars currently use exchange and question Each term featured is a part of the general disciplinary parlance and each is a highly contested focal point of significant debates about matters of power identity and values Each essay begins with the assumption that its central term is important precisely because its meaning is open and multiplex Keywords in Writing Studies reveals how the key concepts in the field are used and even challenged rather than advocating particular usages and the particular vision of the field that they imply The volume will be of great interest to both graduate students and established scholars Unspun Thomas Swiss, 2000 Visit the Unspun website which includes Table of Contents and the Introduction The World Wide Web has cut a wide path through our daily lives As claims of the Web changes everything suffuse print media television movies and even presidential campaign speeches just how thoroughly do the users immersed in this new technology understand it What exactly is the Web changing And how might we participate in or even direct Web related change Intended for readers new to studying the Internet each chapter in Unspun addresses a different aspect of the web revolution hypertext multimedia authorship community governance identity gender race cyberspace political economy and ideology as it shapes and is shaped by economic political social and cultural forces The contributors particularly focus on the language of the Web exploring concepts that are still emerging and therefore unstable and in flux Unspun demonstrates how the tacit assumptions behind this rhetoric must be examined if we want to really know what we are saying when we talk about the Web Unspun will help readers more fully understand and become critically aware of the issues involved in living as we do in a wired society Contributors include Jay Bolter Sean Cubitt Jodi Dean Dawn Dietrich Cynthia Fuchs Matthew Kirschenbaum Timothy Luke Vincent Mosco Lisa Nakamura Russell Potter Rob Shields John Sloop and Joseph Tabbi Genre and the Performance of Publics Mary Jo Reiff, Anis Bawarshi, 2016-03-01 In recent decades genre studies has focused attention on how genres mediate social activities within workplace and academic settings Genre and the Performance of Publics moves beyond institutional settings to explore public contexts that are less hierarchical broadening the theory of how genres contribute to the interconnected and dynamic performances of public life Chapters examine how genres develop within publics and how genres tend to mediate performances in public domains setting up a discussion between public sphere scholarship and rhetorical genre studies The volume extends the understanding of genres as not only social ways of organizing texts or mediating relationships within institutions but as dynamic performances themselves By exploring how genres shape the formation of publics Genre and the Performance of Publics brings rhetoric composition and public sphere studies into dialogue and enhances the understanding of public genre performances in ways that contribute to research on and teaching of public discourse

Involuntary Associations David Huddart, 2014-05-28 This groundbreaking study puts examples from World Englishes into dialogue with postcolonial studies resulting in a postcolonial perspective on English today

The Knowledge Contract David B. Downing, 2005-01-01 The Knowledge Contract intervenes in the ongoing debates about the changing conditions of higher education in America with a special focus on English studies and the humanities This highly original study integrates three crucial concerns the economic restructuring of higher education the transformation of disciplinary models of teaching and research and the rise of the academic labor movement Whereas most contemporary critiques of higher education have focused on the impact of global economic forces The Knowledge Contract adds a new dimension to the discussion by addressing the tensions between disciplinary and nondisciplinary forms of academic work David B Downing draws on several traditions of scholarship histories of the university sociological studies of education critiques of disciplinary and interdisciplinary forms of work histories of academic capitalism and the labor movement and field specific analyses of the history of English studies Building on his analysis Downing develops alternative possibilities to the dominance of disciplinary forms of labor and offers scenarios for creating more equitable working and learning conditions for faculty and students Ethnography Unbound Stephen Gilbert Brown, Sidney I. Dobrin, 2012-02-01 These provocative new essays redefine the goals methods and assumptions of qualitative and ethnographic research in composition studies making evident not only the crucial importance of ethnographic research but also its resilience As Ethnography Unbound makes evident critical ethnographers are retheorizing their methodologies in ways that both redefine ethnographic practices and values and at the same time have begun to liberate ethnographic practices from the often disabling stronghold of postmodern critique Showing how ethnography works through dialogic processes and moves toward political ends this collection opens the doors to rethinking ethnographic research in composition studies

Writing Against the Curriculum Randi Gray Kristensen, Ryan M. Claycomb, 2010-01-01 Writing against the Curriculum responds to the popularity of Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and similar programs in U S higher education Essays by administrators faculty and librarians teaching introductory and advanced writing classes argue that such classrooms make excellent spaces to question disciplinarity through the study of rhetoric critical thinking and curricular flexibility This intervention in composition and cultural studies discourses enables the activist enactment of cultural studies theory and addresses the theoretical implications of composition practices

Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers, Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers Writing Instruction in the Managed University exposes the poor working conditions of contingent composition faculty and explores practical alternatives to the unfair labor practices that are all too common on campuses today Editors Marc Bousquet Tony Scott and Leo Parascondola bring together diverse perspectives from pragmatism to historical materialism to provide a perceptive and engaging examination of the nature extent and economics of the managed labor problem in composition instruction a field in which as much as ninety three percent of all classes are taught by graduate students adjuncts and other disposable teachers These instructors enjoy few benefits meager wages little or no participation in departmental governance and none of the rewards and protections that encourage innovation and research And it is from this disenfranchised position that literacy workers are expected to provide some of the core instruction in nearly everyone's higher education experience Twenty six contributors explore a range of real world solutions to managerial domination of the composition workplace from traditional academic unionism to ensemble movement activism and the pragmatic rhetoric accommodations and resistances practiced by teachers in their daily lives Contributors are Leann Bertoncini Marc Bousquet Christopher Carter Christopher Ferry David Downing Amanda Godley Robin Truth Goodman Bill Hendricks Walter Jacobsohn Ruth Kiefson Paul Lauter Donald Lazere Eric Marshall Randy Martin Richard Ohmann Leo Parascondola Steve Parks Gary Rhoades Eileen Schell Tony Scott William Thelin Jennifer Seibel Trainor Donna Strickland William Vaughn Ray Watkins and Katherine Wills

Teaching/Writing in Thirdspaces Rhonda C. Grego, Nancy S. Thompson, 2008 Rhonda C Grego and Nancy S Thompson argue that because the studio is physically and institutionally outside but alongside both students other coursework and the hierarchy of the institution it represents a thirdspace a unique position in which to effect institutional change Teaching Writing in Thirdspaces provides an alternative approach to traditional basic writing courses that can be adopted in educational institutions of all types and at all levels

BOOK JACKET The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administrating writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts

Intertexts Marguerite Helmers, 2003-01-30 What do we mean when we talk about reading What does it mean to teach reading What place does reading have in the college writing classroom Intertexts Reading Pedagogy in College Writing Classrooms theoretically and practically situates the teaching of reading as a common pedagogical practice in the college writing classroom As a whole the book argues for rethinking the separation of reading and writing within the first year writing classroom for an expanded notion of reading that is based on finding and creating meaning from a variety of symbolic forms not just print based texts but also other forms such as Web sites and visual images The chapter authors represent a range of cultural personal and rhetorical perspectives including cultural studies classical rhetoric visual rhetoric electronic literacy reader response theory creative writing and critical theories of literature and literary criticism This volume an important contribution to composition studies is essential reading for researchers instructors writing program administrators and students involved in college writing instruction and literature Diversity and Decolonization in French Studies Siham Bouamer, Loïc Bourdeau, 2022-04-04 This edited volume presents new and original approaches to teaching the French foreign language curriculum reconceptualizing the French classroom through a more inclusive lens The volume engages with a broad range of scholars to facilitate an understanding of the process of French decolonization as well as its reverberations into the postcolonial era and a deeper engagement with the global interconnectedness of these processes Chapters in Part I revisit the concept of the francophonie decenter the field from metropolitan or hexagonal and white France and underline how current teaching materials reproduce epistemic and colonial violence Part II adopts an intersectional approach to address topics of gender inclusivity trans affirming teaching queer materials and ableism Finally Part III presents new ways to transform the discipline by affirming our commitment to social justice and making sure that our classrooms are representative of our students enriching diversity

Writing with Authority David Foster, 2006-06-28 Writing with Authority offers a comparison of student writers in two university cultures one German and one American as the students learn to connect their writing to academic content David Foster demonstrates the effectiveness of using cross cultural comparisons to assess differences in literacy activities and suggests teaching approaches that will help American students better develop their roles as writers in knowledge based communities

Crip Theory Robert McRuer, Michael Bérubé, 2023-11-21 A bold and contemporary discourse of the intersection of disability studies and queer studies Crip Theory attends to the contemporary cultures of disability and queerness that are coming out all over Both disability studies and queer theory are centrally concerned with how bodies pleasures and identities are represented as normal or as abject but Crip Theory is the first book to analyze thoroughly the ways in which these interdisciplinary fields inform each other Drawing on feminist theory African American and Latino a cultural theories composition studies film and television studies and theories of globalization and counter globalization Robert McRuer articulates the central concerns of crip theory and considers how such a critical perspective might impact cultural and historical inquiry in the humanities Crip Theory puts forward readings of the Sharon Kowalski story the performance art of Bob Flanagan and the journals of Gary Fisher as well as critiques of the domesticated queerness and disability marketed by the Millennium March or Bravo TV's Queer Eye for the Straight Guy McRuer examines how dominant and marginal bodily and sexual identities are composed and considers the vibrant ways that disability and queerness unsettle and re write those identities in order to insist that another world is possible

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow, 2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education By redesigning writing workshops and MFA PhD programs through craft consciousness new potentials and collaborations emerge and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic inclusive relationships between writers scientists and other artists

Signs of Struggle Thomas R. West, 2002-02-21 Focuses on signifiers of cultural difference such as sexuality class gender and race and how they are connected to theories of writing

Language Of Experience Gwen Gorzelsky, 2017-03-13 The Language of Experience examines the relationship between literacy and change both personal and social Gorzelsky studies three cases two historical and one contemporary that speak to key issues on the national education agenda Struggle is a community literacy program for urban teens and parents It encourages them to reflect on articulate and revise their life goals and design and implement strategies for reaching them To provide historical context for this and other contemporary efforts in using literacy to promote social change Gorzelsky analyzes two radical religious and political movements of the English Civil Wars and the 1930s unionizing movement in the Pittsburgh region Charting the similarities and differences in the function of literate practices in each case shows how different situations and contexts can foster very different outcomes Gorzelsky s analytic frame is drawn from Gestalt theory which emphasizes the holistic nature of perception communication and learning Through it she views how discourse and language structures interact with experience and how this interaction changes awareness and perception The book is methodologically innovative in its integration of a macro social view of cultural social and discursive structures with a micro social view of the potential for change embodied in them Through her analysis and in her use of the voices of the people she studies Gorzelsky offers a tool for analyzing individual instances of literate practices and their potential for fostering change
