Arthur Dove Rachael Z. DeLue, 2016-03-16 Arthur Dove often credited as America's first abstract painter created dynamic and evocative images inspired by his surroundings from the farmland of upstate New York to the North Shore of Long Island But his interests were not limited to nature Challenging earlier accounts that view him as simply a landscape painter Arthur Dove Always Connect reveals for the first time the artist's intense engagement with language the nature of social interaction and scientific and technological advances Rachael Z DeLue rejects the traditional assumption that Dove can only be understood in terms of his nature paintings and association with photographer and gallerist Alfred Stieglitz and his circle Instead she uncovers deep and complex connections between Dove's work and his world including avant garde literature popular music meteorology mathematics aviation and World War II Arthur Dove also offers the first sustained account of Dove's Dadaesque multimedia projects and the first explorations of his animal imagery and the role of humor in his art Beautifully illustrated with works from all periods of Dove's career this book presents a new vision of one of America's most innovative and captivating artists and reimagines how the story of modern art in the United States might be told

Who's Who in American Art Marquis Who's Who, 2006-11 Alice Neel Alice Neel, 2002 Alice Neel's remarkable drawings are intimate explorations of her personal life her loves and her family her friends people she met in New York and the art world Spontaneous and dynamic the works on paper in Black and White provide insight into her environments exterior and interior In them she positions universal themes motherhood death longing within the sphere of her private existence and her social unconscious While a handful of the drawings are urban cityscapes and others are domestic settings the majority are portraits And when Neel the self-named Collector of Souls composed a portrait she never posed her sitters Instead she studied and spoke intimately with her subjects as they unconsciously assumed their most natural attitude which she believed exhorted all their character and life experience The images she created full of distinctly innate gestures stemmed from her succinct understanding and assembled memory and coalesced into a unique impression of a person

America After the Fall Sarah L. Burns, Teresa A. Carbone, Annelise K. Madsen, Sarah Kelly Oehler, 2016-01-01 A unique look at America's quest to carve out an artistic identity during the Depression era Through 50 masterpieces of painting this fascinating catalogue chronicles the turbulent economic political and aesthetic climate of the 1930s This decade was a supremely creative period in the United States as the nation's artists novelists and critics struggled through the Great Depression seeking to define modern American art In the process many painters challenged and reworked the meanings and forms of modernism reaching no simple consensus This period was also marked by an astounding diversity of work as artists sought styles ranging from abstraction to Regionalism to Surrealism that allowed them to engage with issues such as populism labor social protest and to employ an urban and rural iconography including machines factories and farms Seminal works by Edward Hopper Grant Wood Thomas Hart Benton Georgia O'Keeffe Aaron Douglas Charles Sheeler Stuart Davis and others show such attempts to capture the American character These groundbreaking paintings highlighting the relationship between art and national experience demonstrate how creativity experimentation and revolutionary vision flourished during a time of great uncertainty

Art + Architecture Jim Olson, Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Architects, 2006 This ground breaking volume invites the reader into the elegant Seattle home of influential collectors Barney A and Pam Ebsworth who own one of the most important private collections of modern American art The house was designed specifically for the collection which includes seminal paintings and sculptures by Hopper de Kooning Pollock O'Keeffe Johns Hockney and Calder among many others Art Architecture is one of the first examinations ever of how a top flight collector works with an architecture firm in this case Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen which understands the alchemy that allows a great work of art to exist independently in a room and still allow the residents to live life around it This gorgeous book includes photos of the art in the home and also beautiful color reproductions of each piece With commentary by Franklin Kelly curator of British and American art at the National Gallery A must for both architecture and art aficionados
