The Economy Of Prestige Prizes Awards And The Circulation Of Cultural Value:

The Economy of Prestige James F. English, 2008-12-15 This is a book about one of the great untold stories of modern cultural life the remarkable ascendancy of prizes in literature and the arts Such prizes and the competitions they crown are almost as old as the arts themselves but their number and power and their consequences for society and culture at large have expanded to an unprecedented degree in our day In a wide ranging overview of this phenomenon James F English documents the dramatic rise of the awards industry and its complex role within what he describes as an economy of cultural prestige Observing that cultural prizes in their modern form originate at the turn of the twentieth century with the institutional convergence of art and competitive spectator sports English argues that they have in recent decades undergone an important shift a more genuine and far reaching globalization than what has occurred in the economy of material goods Focusing on the cultural prize in its contemporary form his book addresses itself broadly to the economic dimensions of culture to the rules or logic of exchange in the market for what has come to be called cultural capital In the wild proliferation of prizes English finds a key to transformations in the cultural field as a whole And in the specific workings of prizes their elaborate mechanics of nomination and election presentation and acceptance sponsorship publicity and scandal he uncovers evidence of the new arrangements and relationships that have refigured that field

How White Men Won the Culture Wars Joseph Darda, 2021-05-25 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2022 A cultural history of how white men exploited the image of the Vietnam veteran to roll back civil rights and restake their claim on the nation If war among the whites brought peace and liberty to the blacks Frederick Douglass asked in 1875 peering into the nation s future what will peace among the whites bring The answer then and now after civil war and civil rights a white reunion disguised as a veterans reunion How White Men Won the Culture Wars shows how a broad contingent of white men conservative and liberal hawk and dove vet and nonvet transformed the Vietnam War into a staging ground for a post civil rights white racial reconciliation Conservatives could celebrate white vets as raceless embodiments of the nation Liberals could treat them as minoritized heroes whose voices must be heard Erasing Americans of color Southeast Asians and women from the war white men with stories of vets on their mind could agree after civil rights and feminism that they had suffered and deserved more From the POW MIA and veterans mental health movements to Rambo and Born in the U S A they remade their racial identities for an age of color blindness and multiculturalism in the image of the Vietnam vet No one wins in a culture war except Joseph Darda argues white men dressed in army green

Mo Yan in Context Angelica Duran, Yuhua Huang, 2014-11-01 In 2012 the Swedish Academy announced that Mo Yan had received the Nobel Prize in Literature for his work that with hallucinatory realism

merges folk tales history and the contemporary The announcement marked the first time a resident of mainland China had ever received the award This is the first English language study of the Chinese writer s work and influence featuring essays from scholars in a range of disciplines from both China and the United States Its introduction twelve articles and epilogue aim to deepen and widen critical discussions of both a specific literary author and the globalization of Chinese literature more generally The book takes the root seeking movement with which Mo Yan s works are associated as a metaphor for its organizational structure The four articles of Part I Leaves focus on Mo Yan s works as world literature exploring the long shadow his works have cast globally Howard Goldblatt Mo Yan s English translator explores the difficulties and rewards of interpreting his work while subsequent articles cover issues such as censorship and the performativity associated with being a global author Part II Trunk explores the nativist core of Mo Yan s works Through careful comparative treatment of related historical events the five articles in this section show how specific literary works intermingle with China s national and international politics its mid twentieth century visual culture and its rich religious and literary conventions including humor The three articles in Part III Roots delve into the theoretical and practical extensions of Mo Yan s works uncovering the vibrant critical and cultural systems that ground Eastern and Western literatures and cultures Mo Yan in Context concludes with an epilogue by sociologist Fenggang Yang offering a personal and globally aware reflection on the recognition Mo Yan s works have received at this historical juncture

The Rise of Awards in Architecture Jean-Pierre Chupin, Carmela Cucuzzella, Georges Adamczyk, 2022-09-06 This book is the first scientific study to focus on awards in architecture and the built environment investigating their exponential growth since the 1980s The celebration of excellence in architecture and related fields remains a phenomenon on which there is strangely little scientific scrutiny What is to be understood from the plethora of award winning projects award winning buildings and awarded professional practices in the built environment year after year Glossy images partake in an intense ballet at every local regional national or international award ceremony and they are meant to embody proofs of architectural excellence However it is necessary to take a critical distance to question what awards are meant to embody symbolize and perhaps measure Each of the 10 chapters in this volume is centered on one question related to themes as varied as the comparison of Pritzker and Nobel Prizes the Prix de Rome the redefinition of quality through awards green awards and sustainability the multiplication of sustainable awards heritage awards architecture book awards the awarding of school architecture awards as mediations and awards as pedagogical devices Many fields once consolidated have featured a sharp increase in related prizes The original data compiled and summarized in 4 appendices cover more than 150 award granting organizations in some 30 countries Our inventory includes upwards of 24 000 prizes awarded at more than 3 100 events the earliest of which is the first instance of Western architecture s seminal Grand Prix de Rome in France in 1720 A history of contemporary architecture is thus written through press releases that praise the merits of the heroes as much as their works and achievements And while awards can be vehicles that propel architecture forward they can also be Trojan horses in an era that is constantly on the lookout for event driven products small and big news and brand imaging Culture as Soft Power Elisabet Carbó-Catalan,Diana Roig Sanz,2022-09-06 This book contributes to bridge the gap between different scholarly communities interested in the entanglements of culture and politics in the international arena It sheds light on existing connections in their parallel evolution with a thorough literature review complemented by several case studies showing the fruitful character of their interdisciplinary mobilisation Through the notions of cultural relations intellectual cooperation and cultural diplomacy the book draws on a soft power perspective to offer a shared novel and interdisciplinary theoretical framework to approach cultural institutions and organisations that have been previously examined as isolated objects for example cultural institutes international organisations literary magazines and literary contests The interdisciplinary nature of this volume justifies the relevance of its content for scholars working in the history of international relations international cultural relations and intellectual history comparative literature sociology of literature and global literary studies The Business of Creativity Brian Moeran,2016-06-16 How does a group of people brought together because of their diverse skills and professional knowledge set out to be creative How are ongoing tensions between beauty fame and money resolved In The Business of Creativity Brian Moeran a leading scholar and writer on the creative industries takes the sacred relic of creativity out of the crypt and airs it in the ethnographic alley In contrast to the persistent image of creativity as the spontaneous inspiration of a gifted individual Moeran shows how creativity emerges from collaborative engagements among people genres institutions materials and technologies He alternates thick description of work in fashion advertising and ceramic art with theoretical innovations that shed new light on the aesthetic symbolic and economic dimensions of creativity and the production of worth
