Redesigning The American Dream

Revised And Updated Dolores Hayden, 2002-09-03 In a provocative critique of American housing patterns that perpetuate Victorian stereotypes of the home as woman s place and the city as man s world urban historian and architect Dolores Hayden tallies the personal and social costs that an architecture of gender creates for the two earner family the single parent family and single people She traces three models of home in historical perspective to document innovative alternatives for reconstructing neighborhoods The Futurist, 1982 Toward Self-Sufficiency George Hunt, 2018-11-16 George Hunt spent more than fifty years as a community planner and landscape architect This included hands on work in impoverished and low income areas which helped him understand the dynamics that hold us back from achieving self sufficiency In this book he outlines a sustainable community project that seeks to solve social problems that most community planners overlook. The pilot project includes numerous ways to make communities self-sufficient and while it's geared for those in middle and lower income brackets anyone can use its concepts. He explains how multiple purpose buildings can be used to house a diversity of people, ways to launch a business within the community by collaborating and sharing with others, how to obtain a vocational work study program offered on site and more. The book is also a reference manual on transition community design, creating a purpose, the meaning of happiness, sustainable agricultural practices, how to live without stuff and how to reduce anxiety and depression.
