The Edward R Murrow Heritage Challenge For The Future:

The Edward R. Murrow Heritage Betty H. Winfield, Lois B. DeFleur, 1986 The Edward R. Murrow Heritage Betty Houchin Winfield, Lois B. DeFleur, 1986 Murrow's Cold War Gregory M. Tomlin, 2016-05 In March 1961 America's most prominent journalist Edward R Murrow ended a quarter century career with the Columbia Broadcasting System to join the administration of John F Kennedy as director of the United States Information Agency USIA Charged with promoting a positive image abroad the agency sponsored overseas research programs produced documentaries and operated the Voice of America to spread the country's influence throughout the world As director of the USIA Murrow hired African Americans for top spots in the agency and leveraged his celebrity status at home to challenge all Americans to correct the scourge of domestic racism that discouraged developing countries viewed as strategic assets from aligning with the West Using both overt and covert propaganda programs Murrow forged a positive public image for Kennedy administration policies in an unsettled era that included the rise of the Berlin Wall the Cuban Missile Crisis and support for Vietnam's Ngo Dinh Diem Murrow's Cold War tackles an understudied portion of Murrow's life reveals how one of America's most revered journalists improved the global perception of the United States and exposes the importance of public diplomacy in the advancement of U S foreign policy

Stories that Changed America Carl Jensen, 2011-01-04 Exuberantly written highly informative Jensen's Stories That Changed America examines the work of twenty one investigative writers and how their efforts forever changed our country Here are the pioneering muckrakers like Upton Sinclair author of the fact based novel The Jungle that inspired Theodore Roosevelt to sign the Pure Food and Drug Act into law Queen of the Muckrakers Ida Mae Tarbell whose McClure magazine exposés led to the dissolution of Standard Oil's monopoly and Lincoln Steffens a reporter who unearthed corruption in both municipal and federal governments You'll also meet Margaret Sanger the former nurse who coined the term birth control George Seldes the most censored journalist in American history Nobel Prize winning novelist John Steinbeck environmentalist Rachel Carson National Organization of Women founder Betty Friedan African American activist Malcolm X consumer advocate Ralph Nader and Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein the Pulitzer Prize winning reporters whose Watergate break in coverage brought down President Richard Nixon The courageous writers Jensen includes in this deftly researched volume dedicated their lives to fight for social civil political and environmental rights with their mighty pens

Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression Routledge Revivals: Radio Broadcasting from 1920 to 1990 (1991) Diane Foxhill Carothers, 2016-11-10 First published in 1991 this book presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of radio broadcasting Its eleven chapter categories cover almost the entire range of radio broadcasting with the exception of radio engineering due to its technical complexity although some of the historical volumes do encompass aspects thus providing background material Entries are primarily restricted to published books although a number of trade journals and periodicals are also included Each entry includes full bibliographic information including the ISBN or ISSN where available and an annotation written by the author with the original text in hand Same Time, Same Station James L. Baughman, 2007-03-26 Outstanding Academic Title for 2007 Choice Magazine Ever wonder how American television came to be the much derided advertising heavy home to reality programming formulaic situation comedies hapless men and buxom scantily clad women Could it have been something different focusing instead on culture theater and performing arts In Same Time Same Station historian James L. Baughman takes readers behind the scenes of early broadcasting examining corporate machinations that determined the future of television Split into two camps those who thought TV could meet and possibly raise the expectations of wealthier better educated post war consumers and those who believed success meant mimicking the products of movie houses and radio decision makers fought a battle of ideas that peaked in the 1950s just as TV became a central facet of daily life for most Americans Baughman s engagingly written account of the brief but contentious debate shows how the inner workings and outward actions of the major networks advertisers producers writers and entertainers ultimately made TV the primary forum for entertainment and information The tale of television s founding years reveals a series of decisions that favored commercial success over cultural aspiration FDR and the News Media Betty Houchin Winfield, 1994 Power was at the heart of FDR s relationship with the media the power of the nation s chief executive to control his public messages versus the power of the free press to act as an independent watchdog over the president and the government This compelling study points to Roosevelt s consummate news management as a key to his political artistry and leadership legacy Now the News Edward Bliss, Jr., 2010-06-01 Walter Cronkite Making News Richard R. John, Jonathan Silberstein-Loeb, 2015 This book charts the rise and fall of the newspaper as the primary medium for the conveyance of news The book focuses on two of the most influential media markets in the modern world Great Britain and the United States between 1688 and 1995 In 1688 Parliament created institutional arrangements that would hasten the rise of the newspaper as the dominant medium for the circulation of news In 1995 the National Science Foundation commercialized the Internet encouraging an astonishing proliferation of information on all manner of topics including the news Per capita newspaper circulation had been declining for decades partly due to shifting social norms and partly due to the rise of broadcast news The Internet exacerbated this trend partly because it provided a cheaper news source and partly because it quickly became a superior vehicle for advertising a major source of revenue for newspaper publishers for over two hundred years However only rarely has advertising revenue and direct sales covered costs Almost never has the demand for news generated the revenue necessary for its supply Non market institutional arrangements have ranged from direct government subsidies to organizational forms that enabled news organizations to cooperate From a historical perspective the large profits reaped by a handful of newspaper publishers in the post Second World War era were anomalous and in no sense a baseline for public policy Never again will the newspaper be the dominant news medium To guarantee an informed citizenry in the future it is necessary to understand how the news business worked in the past This book is organized around eight essays each written by a distinguished specialist and each explicitly comparative Its theme is the indispensability in both Great Britain and the United States of non market institutional arrangements in the provisioning of news
