The Emigrant George Baker, 2008 This is the moving story of George his years in China from his birth in 1934 up to 1957 and his quest to be reunited with his family whom he had not seen for many years He drifted from one place to another and his unusual upbringing with distant relatives strangers and the time he spent alone in a charity run boarding school taught him that he had to fight to survive The images of what he saw would haunt him for the rest of his life but nothing could prepare him for the upheaval and upset ahead when his daring plan to escape from the wars being waged around him to freedom became reality Blinded by the passion of youth and his need to be wanted to belong and be loved his miraculous journey to find his family meant he had to grow up fast and leave behind the people who had meant so much to him including his first love This is my story and I hope that readers will forgive me for some of the language used but it was necessary in order to express the iniquity of the events that occurred The Emigrant Ship William Clark Russell, 1893 The Central Provinces Gazette Central Provinces (India), 1908 Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States United States.
