The Enemies Of Leisure Poems:

The Enemies of Leisure John Gery, 1995 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02
The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets world wide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets, talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's/Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes.

Uncommonplace Ann Brewster Dobie, 1998-07-01 Brought together here in one volume are sixty-seven vibrant poets united by deep ties to Louisiana. They sing of this uncommon place in voices enticingly diverse. Professor grandmother, petroleum landman, insurance salesman, they are black and white, young and old, French and English speaking, native, transient, displaced, and even recovering Louisianians. They hail not only from cities, small towns, and farms throughout Louisiana, but also from states across the country where, despite time and distance, many continue to think of themselves as belonging to the bayous and cottonfields of their former home. Included are writers of considerable renown such as Catharine Savage Brosman, Kelly Cherry, Andrei Codrescu, Yusef Komunyakaa, Pinkie Gordon, Lane David, Middleton Sue, Owen and Dave Smith, and others known better regionally. Each finds in poetry's images, sounds, and forms the means to express personal encounters with the dilemmas of modern life and the age-old issues of love, guilt, family, death, and friendship. A rich array of styles, perspectives, and experiences. Uncommonplace delivers impressive proof of the creative spirit alive in the state and the power of place to unleash that spirit.

Juvenile Poems John Armstrong, 1789 Louisiana Poets Catharine Savage Brosman, Olivia McNeely Pass, 2019-04-10 Louisiana has long been recognized for its production of talented writers, and its poets in particular have shined. From the early poetry of the state to the work crafted in the present day, Louisiana has nurtured and exported a rich and diverse poetic tradition. In Louisiana Poets: A Literary Guide, authors Catharine Savage Brosman and Olivia McNeely Pass assess the achievements of Louisiana poets from the past hundred years. Who Brosman and Pass assert deserve both public notice and careful critical examination. Louisiana Poets presents the careers and works of writers whose verse is closely connected to the people's history and landscapes of Louisiana or whose upbringing or artistic development occurred in the state. Brosman and Pass chose poets based on the scope, abundance, and excellence of their work, their critical reception, and the local and national standing of the writer and work. The book treats a wide range of forty poets, from national bestsellers to local celebrities, detailing their histories and output. Intended to be of broad interest and easy to consult, Louisiana Poets showcases the corpus of Louisiana poetry alongside its current profile. Brosman and Pass have

The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour, William IX of Aquitaine Fidel Fajardo-Acosta,2023-08-15 The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour William IX of Aquitaine The Songs that Built Europe offers a new edition translation and critical discussion of the songs of the first European troubadour William IX Duke of Aquitaine This book argues that William and his poetic works manifest the economic political and cultural forces that laid the foundations of modern Europe including the subjectivities of modern westerners and the concerns and motifs of what later became the national literatures of France Spain England Germany and Italy Encouraging personal freedoms self definition and the pursuit of love and happiness the culture of courtly love that William initiated is distinctly modern but can also be seen to have played a key role in the subjection of medieval Europeans to the then emergent market economy imperialist ambitions of the Church and authority of proto national kingdoms As such subjection affected even the highest ranking aristocrats such as William the road of liberation of desire appears to have been a fast lane to serfdom for everyone perhaps the most pre modern feature of the modern and postmodern conditions
