The Eden Narrative

A Literary and Religio-historical Study of Genesis 2-3

Tryggve N. D. Mettinger

The Eden Narrative

Howard N. Wallace

The Eden Narrative:

The Eden Narrative Tryggve N. D. Mettinger, 2007-06-30 In a book marked by unusually readable yet academic style Mettinger transforms our knowledge of the story of Eden in Genesis He shows us a story focused on a divine test of human obedience with human disobedience and its consequences as its main theme Both of the special trees in Eden had a function the tree of knowledge as the test case and the tree of life as the potential reward for obedience Mettinger adopts a two tiered approach In a synchronic move he undertakes a literary analysis that yields striking observations on narratology theme and genre in the text studied He defines the genre as myth and subjects the narrative to a functional analysis He then applies a diachronic approach and presents a tradition historical reconstruction of an Adamic myth in Ezekiel 28 The presence of both wisdom and immortality in this myth leads to a discussion of these divine prerogatives in Mesopotamian literature remember Adapa and Gilgamesh The two prerogatives demarcated an ontological boundary between the divine and human spheres Nevertheless the Eden Narrative does not evaluate the human desire to obtain knowledge or wisdom negatively A piece of fresh original scholarship in accessible form this book is ideal for courses on creation primeval history the Bible and literature and the Bible and the ancient Near East The Eden Narrative Howard N. Wallace, 1982 The Eden Narrative Howard N. Wallace, 1985-01-01 The Compositional Role of the Eden Narrative in the Pentateuch Eric W. Bolger, 1993 The Dynamics of Shame in the Eden Narrative John M. Andersen, 2018 God the Creator Ben C. Ollenburger, 2023-04-18 Christians today are focused on two important creation topics how the world came to be and how we should care for it A highly respected Old Testament theologian recommends that before discussing these questions we focus on God the Creator and God's ongoing work in creation We should explore what the Bible tells us and let the text set the agenda for our reflections Combining his storytelling gift with rigorous biblical exegesis and deep reflection Ben Ollenburger describes the action of God the Creator as presented throughout the Old Testament He shows how creation is about more than origins It is about God acting against the hostile forces of chaos that can be historical political and military About how God created a well ordered world and how human transgression ruptures God's relationship with humans and threatens creation About how God responds as Creator to those threats by disturbing and reordering the disorder bringing about what God intended a world ordered in the social political and natural realms that is characterized by the justice righteousness and peace required for human flourishing The Uniqueness of the Creation of Marriage in the Eden Narrative in Its Ancient Near Eastern Literary Context Russell Mark Yee, 1990 A Theocentric Interpretation of ידע טוב ורע נאח Nathan S. French, 2021-02-15 On a primary level the author seeks to answer the question what is the best interpretation of The Knowledge of Good and Evil in Gen 2 9 17 3 5 and 3 22 In Gen 3 5 and 3 22 this knowledge is said to be possessed by YHWH and the divine beings This study analyzes the permutations of good and evil bad in the Hebrew Bible with a majority focus in Genesis and the Deuteronomistic History and with a focus upon those textual instances in which YHWH has influence over good and bad evil Due to the results of the data the author brings in a second level of discussion that focuses upon the hermeneutical principle of divine retribution as a structuring element for ancient Near Eastern historiography On a third level the author turns to divine blessing and cursing and its association with good and evil in ancient Near Eastern texts and in the Hebrew Bible Due to this specific theocentric analysis of the lexemes juxtaposed with the author's wider study of ancient Near Eastern history and culture the answer to the guiding question of this study is therefore proposed by the author as The Divine Knowledge for Administering Reward and Punishment Ergo the Eden Narrative tells a story of how humans partly attain divinity becoming like YHWH and the divine beings Gen 3 5 3 22 Ps 82 in having acquired the forbidden divine knowledge for wielding ultimate power

The Ways of a King Geoffrey P. Miller, 2011-11-16

Geoffrey P Miller argues that the narratives from Genesis to Second Kings present a sophisticated argument for political obligation and for limited monarchy as the best form of government The Hebrew Bible in this sense can be considered as one of the earliest political philosophies of the western world The Garden of Eden story identifies revelation consent utopia natural law ownership power patriarchy and justice as bases for political obligation The stories of life after the expulsion from Eden argue that government and law are essential for a decent life The Genesis narratives recognize patriarchal authority but also identifies limits based on kinship higher authority and power The book of Exodus introduces the topic of political authority arguing that nationhood strictly dominates over other forms of political organization The Sinai narratives explore two important sources of authority revelation and consent of the governed The book of Joshua presents a theory of sovereignty conceived of as the exclusive and absolute control over territory The book of Judges examines two types of national government military rule and confederacy It argues that military rule is inappropriate for peacetime conditions and that the confederate form is not strong enough to deliver the benefits of nationhood The books of Samuel and Kings consider theocracy and monarchy The bible endorses monarchy as the best available form of government provided that the king is constrained by appropriate checks and balances Contrary to the view of some scholars no text from Genesis to Second Kings disapproves of monarchy as a form of government
