The Enemy Within Combating Corruption In Asia:

The Enemy Within Simon Tay, 2003 This book shares best practices and practical experiences from Asian countries and should serve as a resource book in the hands of counter corruption agencies and government leaders It examines common challenges and shared experiences and lays out tested strategies and solutions The Enemy Within, 2003 Corporate Social Responsibility and Human Rights in Asia Robert J. Hanlon, 2014-04-16 As globalization has brought about new concerns and responsibilities for business particularly in the realm of human rights many multinational corporations MNC operating in Asia have argued that such rights are the responsibility of government However as globalization continues to improve market access for MNCs it increasingly exposes them to new forms of transnational social movements and as a result the private sector has emerged as one of the central stakeholders in the region s human rights dialogue Taking three of Asia s fastest emerging economies Cambodia China and Thailand as its starting point Corporate Social Responsibility and Human Rights in Asia explores the business case for corporate social responsibility human rights and anti corruption in the region In doing so it examines how industry perceives human rights and corruption within the corporate social responsibility CSR paradigm and builds on the argument that the CSR regime is a socially constructed concept Drawing on interviews with key stakeholders including business leaders nongovernmental organizations international organizations and government officials Robert Hanlon argues that industry perceives human rights as outside their sphere of influence that divergent stakeholder interests are side lining the human rights debate and that human rights are increasingly ignored in the quest for profit maximization This leads to the conclusion that human rights and corruption will remain peripheral business issues until stakeholders find new ways of creating space for CSR engagement and business actors will continue to marginalize the human rights issue so long as governments in the region let them This interdisciplinary book draws on political science business and sociological perspectives and as such will be of great interest to students and scholars working across the fields of Asian business corporate social responsibility and business ethics human rights and international political economy

Corruption Control in Authoritarian Regimes Christopher

Carothers, 2022-04-07 Reveals how meaningful corruption control by authoritarian regimes is surprisingly common and follows a different playbook than democratic anti corruption reform

Managing Conflicts in a Globalizing ASEAN

Mikio Oishi, 2019-11-11 This book investigates the patterns of conflict management in contemporary Southeast Asia The region has long been characterized by the twin process of state formation and nation building which has been responsible for most of the region's intrastate and interstate conflicts While this process is still ongoing regional conflicts and their management are increasingly affected by globalisation which not only serves as a new source of or exacerbating factor to conflict but also makes new instruments available for conflict management Employing the concepts of incompatibility management and mediation regime the book analyses the management of seven conflicts in the region the Rohingya crisis and the Kachin conflict in Myanmar the Khmer Krom conflict in Vietnam the West Papua conflict in Indonesia the political conflict in Thailand the Mekong River conflicts involving five Southeast Asian countries and China and the transboundary haze problem emanating from Indonesia The efforts to manage each of them are imagined as constituting a mediation regime and its effectiveness is assessed in terms of good governance Among the findings of the book is that the measures of manoeuvring around incompatibilities are employed predominantly in managing regional conflicts In intrastate conflicts which mostly involve ethnic minorities the authorities first aim to eliminate or impose its own position on ethnic parties When this strategy proves unsuccessful they have no choice but manoeuvre around incompatibilities which may eventually open up a space for mutual learning In interstate conflicts the manoeuvring around strategy works in a more straightforward manner contributing to regional stability However the stability is achieved at the cost of local communities and the natural environment which absorb the incompatibilities in conflict

The Haze Problem in Southeast Asia Helena

Varkkey, 2015-07-16 Despite the efforts of Southeast Asian governments and of ASEAN transboundary haze continues to be a major environmental problem in Southeast Asia This book demonstrates that the issue is complex and explains why efforts to solve the problem in purely political terms are ineffective and likely to continue to be ineffective The book shows how state led state incentivised agribusiness development lies at the heart of the problem leading to a large rise in palm oil production with extensive clearing of forests leading to deliberate or accidental fires and the resulting haze Moreover although the forest clearing is occurring in Indonesia many of the companies involved are Malaysian and Singaporean and further many of these companies have close relationships with the politicians and officials responsible for addressing the problem and who thereby have a conflict of interest The author concludes by discussing the huge difficulties involved in overturning this system of patronage politics

Different Paths to Curbing Corruption Jon S. T. Quah, 2013-11-18

Corruption Control in

Post-Reform China Guoping Jiang, 2017-07-25 The book examines corruption control in post reform China Contrary to the normal perception that corruption is a type of behavior that violates the law the author seeks to approach the issue from a social censure perspective where corruption is regarded as a form of social censure intended to maintain the hegemony of the ruling bloc Such an approach integrates societal structure political goals and agency into a single framework to explain dynamics in corruption control With both qualitative data from officials in power and officials in jail and quantitative data from university students the book explores how the censure on corruption was created and has been applied from 1978 to the present Though primarily intended for academics the book is also accessible for general audiences especially given its intriguing perspective and use of firsthand data on corruption that cannot be found anywhere else Deregulation and Its Discontents M. Ramesh, Michael Howlett, 2006-01-01 an extremely interesting collection full of insights and institutional detail The book definitely deserves the attention of those interested in one of the most debated issues of the last 20 years in economics and political science Herb Thompson Journal of Contemporary Asia Deregulation and its Discontents examines the different ways in which the issues related to deregulation and reregulation have been addressed in Asia The role of government in business has gone through distinct if overlapping cycles regulation deregulation and reregulation However little is known about deregulation and even less about reregulation particularly in relation to Asia The contributors to this book examine the links between the cycles through detailed analyses of the electricity market pensions and stock markets in the Asia Pacific They also offer an explanation of regulatory cycles This unique and inter disciplinary book is thoroughly accessible and will be suitable for specialist as well as non specialist readers It will appeal to academics and researchers of public sector economics Asian studies and the political economy of Asia in particular as well as public officials dealing with regulatory issues
