A Global Perspective on Women in Leadership and Work-Family Integration Kerri Cissna-Heath, Margaret J. Weber, 2020-01-17. There are countless books on the market that address the personal challenges and institutional barriers that ambitious female leaders face in the United States. This volume furthers the conversation by comparing the experiences of women in leadership with regards to work-life balance from eight different countries around the globe: Collecting stories from women in the United States, Costa Rica, India, Iran, Nigeria, Norway, Sri Lanka, and Uganda, this volume provides insights into the issues women face globally regarding leadership and work-family integration. It offers a variety of perspectives from around the world and highlights a variety of cultural norms regarding work and family integration.

"I Could Not Speak My Heart" University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004. This anthology of 19 articles documents the pain, misunderstanding, and that lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgendered people have experienced in the very recent past and demonstrates the real progress both in theory and in practice that has been made in the struggle for equity and social justice. The articles include autobiography, testament, fiction, poetry, and traditional personal analytic essays from authors with different intellectual perspectives: human rights, social reform, human justice, feminist, liberationist, and queer theory.
