A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women Bayyinah S. Jeffries, 2014-04-04 A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women African American Muslim Women in the Movement for Black Self Determination 1950 1975 challenges traditional notions and interpretations of African American particularly women who joined the Original Nation of Islam during the Civil Rights Black Power era This book is the first major investigation of the subject that engages a wide scope of women from The Nation and utilizes a wealth of primary documents and personal interviews to reveal the importance of women in this community Jeffries reveals that women were respected in the movement and maintained a very clear and often sought after voice in the advancement of the Original Nation of Islam A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women replaces the typical portrait of the subservient and irrelevant African American Muslim woman with a far more accurate picture of their integral leadership and substantial contributions to the rise of Islam and black consciousness in the self determination movement in the United States and beyond during the Civil Rights Black Power era The Nation ,1893 The Scattered Nation ,1898 Catalunya, One Nation, Two States A. Alland,2006-12-25 This book deals with the culture of Catalan resistance to assimilation through the maintenance of the Catalan language as an expression of identity This book argues that the Catalans also developed a series of cultural mechanisms to foster identity through intellectual and recreational pursuits as well as through an emphasis on language India, a Nation Annie Besant,1923 Cassier's Magazine ,1895
