Mobile Narratives Eleftheria Arapoglou, Mónica Fodor, Jopi Nyman, 2013-08-15 Emphasizing the role of travel and migration in the performance and transformation of identity this volume addresses representations of travel mobility and migration in 19th 21st century travel writing literature and media texts In so doing the book analyses the role of the various cultural ethnic gender and national encounters pertinent to narratives of travel and migration in transforming and problematizing the identities of both the travelers and travelees enacting in the borderzones between cultures While the individual essays by scholars from a wide range of countries deal with a variety of case studies from various historical spatial and cultural locations they share a strong central interest in the ways in which the narratives of travel contribute to the imagining of ethnic encounters and how they have acted as sites of transformation and transculturation from the early nineteenth century to the present day In addition to discussing textual representations of travel and migration the volume also addresses the ways in which cultural texts themselves travel and are reconstructed in various cultural settings The analyses are particularly attentive to the issues of globalization and migration which provide a general frame for interpretation What distinguishes the volume from existing books is its concern with travel and migration as ways of forging transcultural identities that are able to subvert existing categorizations and binary models of identity formation In so doing it pays particular attention to the performance of identity in various spaces of cultural encounter ranging from North America to the East of Europe putting particular emphasis on the representation of intercultural and ethnic encounters

Poetry, Politics, and the Law in Modern Ireland Adam Hanna, 2022-09-06 Poetry Politics and the Law in Modern Ireland is a richly detailed exploration of how modern Irish poetry has been shaped by and responded to the laws judgments and constitutions of both of the island's jurisdictions Focusing on poets responses in their writing to such contentious legal issues as partition censorship paramilitarism and the curtailment of women's reproductive and other rights this monograph is the first in the growing field of law and literature to focus exclusively on modern Ireland Hanna unpacks the legal engagements of both major and non canonical poets from every decade between the 1920s and the present day including Rhoda Coghill Austin Clarke Paul Durcan Elaine Feeney Miriam Gamble Seamus Heaney Thomas Kinsella Paula Meehan Julie Morrissey Doireann N Ghr ofa and W B Yeats Poetry from the time of independence onward has been shaped by two opposing forces On the one hand the Irish public has traditionally had strong expectations that poets offer a dissenting counter discourse to official sources of law On the other hand poets have more recently expressed skepticism about the ethics of speaking for others and about the adequacy of art in performing a public role Hanna's fascinating study illuminates the poetry that arises from these antithetical modern conditions From the Sin-é Café to the Black Hills Eamonn Wall, 1999 Eamonn Wall arrived in the United States in the 1980s as part of a wave of young educated immigrants who became known as the New Irish In this book he comments on his own experiences and those of his generation who identify as much with contemporary ethnic and immigrant America as they do with the long settled Irish American community Wall's starting point is the now closed Sin Caf in New York's East Village which was a hangout in the early 1990s for expatriate Irish musicians actors and writers He comments on the poetry fiction essays and memoirs of both the New Irish and Americans of Irish heritage locating them within a literary and historical context But this is also a deeply personal book in which Wall wrestles with his own identity as an Irishman living in America raising his children as Americans and learning to love the American landscape from the streets of Manhattan to the western hills of Nebraska
