Spirals of Suffering Brian Rock,1997 This book is a collection of papers on the effects of public violence on children in South Africa Section 1 of this report is an overview of the findings of South Africa s Goldstone Commission of Inquiry into the Effects of Public Violence on Children Section 2 concentrates on assessing problems and intervening to relieve them The following essays are included 1 Introduction Brian Rock 2 Overview Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 3 Children and Violence Quantifying the Damage Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 4 Going beyond the Statistics Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 5 Survey of Organizations Providing Services to Children Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 6 Inquiry Recommendations Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 7 Advisory Panel Recommendations 8 Assessing the Impact of Violence on Children Peter Newell 9 Being Human vs Having Human Rights Cosmas Desmond 10 Post traumatic Stress in Children Presentation and Intervention Guidelines Gill Eagle and Catherine Michelson 11 Working with Traumatized Children A Community Project Sheila Miller and 12 The Survivors of Apartheid and Political Violence in KwaZulu Natal Anne McKay An appendix lists resource contacts Each chapter contains references and there is a reference list for each section Contains 28 tables SLD Traumatic Stress in South Africa Debbie Kaminer, Gillian Eagle, 2010-10-01

Traumatic Stress in South Africa deals with the topic of traumatic stress from a number of angles Traumatic stress and posttraumatic stress more particularly has gained international prominence as a condition or disorder that affects people across the globe in the wake of exposure to extreme life events be these collective or individual Given the history of political violence in South Africa extremely high levels of violence against women and children and the prevalence of violent crime South Africa has the unfortunate distinction of being considered a real life laboratory in which to study traumatic stress Taking both a historical and contemporary perspective the book covers the extent of and manner in which traumatic stress manifests including the way in which exposure to such extremely threatening events impacts on people s meaning and belief systems Therapeutic and community strategies for addressing and healing the effects of trauma exposure are comprehensively covered as well as the particular needs of traumatised children and adolescents Illustrative case material is used to render ideas accessible and engaging The book also provides a comprehensive and up to date overview of theory and practice in the field of traumatic stress studies incorporating both international and South African specific findings The particular value of the text lies in the integration of global and local material and attention to context related challenges such as how trauma presentation and intervention is coloured by cultural systems and class disparities The book highlights both psychological and sociopolitical dimensions of traumatic stress

Developmental Psychology Jacki Watts, Kate Cockcroft, 2009 Offers a theory driven approach to understanding human development from two perspectives the psychoanalytic and the cognitive This book presents thoughts on the South African context and the impact it has on development It is suitable for undergraduates postgraduates and health professionals

Supporting Communities Affected by Violence Craig Higson-Smith, 2002 More than 15 000 people have been killed and

500 000 displaced during years of low intensity civil war in the South African province of KwaZulu Natal This book describes the work of the Programme for Survivors of Violence PSV which with the support of Oxfam helps communities to grapple with the complex social economic political and psychological problems posed by the conflict A framework to guide interventions in polarised communities is outlined with a detailed description of its application to work with young people especially the male members of gangs and paramilitary units children women and local leaders The final chapter summarises the principles which inform the work of the PSV and identifies the fundamental elements that have contributed to its sustained success The book is written for community leaders in any society damaged by civil conflict for development agencies which support such communities and for students and teachers of community development theory and practice Its theoretical framework may be applied usefully in a broad range of situations      Addressing Childhood Adversity David Donald, Andrew Dawes, Johann Louw, 2000 This guide aims to stimulate the development of effective community based interventions in the field of childhood adversity and to contribute to the growing theory of practice in this area      Bodies of Knowledge Efua Prah, Susan Levine, 2021-12-01 Spanning the countries of South Africa Swaziland and Ghana this collection of work brings into focus child and youth experience together as a collage of anthropology creative writing poetry and the fine arts Woven together by questions related to the political economy of child and youth well being identity formation and the multiple layers through which children articulate their health narrative Bodies of Knowledge considers living in and coping with chronic illness spirit possession and death The growth in Critical Health Humanities and the Arts globally suggests the desire for blended efforts to draw in a wider breadth of knowledge that cuts across the divided worlds of critical social science and the arts This book set in an African context offers myriad possibilities for cross disciplinary synergies as learning sites It is a critical contribution to the field of children and childhood studies      Resources in Education ,1998

Behind the Mask Tony Emmett, Alexander Butchart, 2000 This book argues for a proactive approach that focuses on preventing acts of crime and violence before they occur rather than the punishment of perpetrators after the fact It sees crime as embedded in the social structure in the disintegration of families and communities in the breakdown of authority and social trust and in the inequalities of society that breed hostility and disempowerment This theme of social disintegration is linked to recent developments in the field of social capital and in particular to recent empirical findings that link violence with economic inequality and the breakdown of social cohesion The book presents a number of strategically selected case studies of crime and injury prevention projects in South Africa including case studies of community responses to crime

Female Well-Being Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, Janet Mancini Billson, 2013-07-04 This global survey starts from the assumption that the significant transformations in women s lives deserve to be fully documented and interpreted Janet Mancini Billson and Carolyn Fluehr Lobban tackle the complexities of social change by using data from countries in every world region to illustrate the most critical challenges that women faced during the last century challenges that are also likely to shape the 21st century Global knowledge and feminism dovetailed in the 20th century fed by international air travel telecommunications the internet and a growing awareness that solving female oppression would improve the lot of all humankind The authors therefore adopt a strong international comparative cross cultural and feminist framework that uncovers the fundamental processes that promote sustain or degrade the female condition At the heart of Female Well Being are case studies written by country teams of scholars educators and policy analysts in Canada The United States Colombia Iceland the United Kingdom Croatia Japan Bangladesh Thailand South Africa and Sudan Female well being is measured by analysing trends in infant mortality maternal mortality literacy life expectancy education work income family structure and political power These trends are contextualised in the light of the century s major events legislative initiatives social policies and leadership to illustrate the processes that enhance sustain or detract from the female condition This book will be a critical resource for academics development experts and policy analysts

Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson, Tim Butler, 2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies
