the Art of Breaking Up Elizabeth Stevens, 2021-06-08 Breaking up is hard to do Whether you re breaking up with a bad habit a life you know or your first boyfriend But we all have to do it It s just one of the many sucky things about growing up Some of us do it better than others I do it badly Wade Phillips shattered Lisa McGinty s heart in Year 10 for no known reason One minute he was the perfect boy next door boyfriend star goalie on the soccer team and future head prefect The next he was like a different person altogether dumping Lisa and systematically making his way through every girl in our year By Year 12 he d made it through most of the girls in our year and was on to the year below He d miraculously made Head Prefect and was somehow still on the Soccer team even though he put more effort into partying Lisa and I were used to his sarcastic teasing his shallow taunting and his insincere flirting My best friend put on a brave face in front of him but she still felt the sting I knew she still loved him At least she thought she did I kept waiting for her to see he wasn t worth it No one knew what happened to Wade and no one got close to him anymore Not until a life altering incident throws me unavoidably into his path For one single second I see through the armour he s built It takes just one single second for him to see through mine Something connects us It turns out Wade Phillips might be the only one who understands me It turns out I might be the only one who understands him Wade Phillips might be the guy to teach me the art of breaking up but will my heart and Lisa s break in the process Please be aware that this story is set in Australia and therefore uses Australian English spelling and syntax Not recommended for younger readers due to mature content
