Spoils Of Progress Environmental Pollution In The Soviet Union:

The Spoils of progress Marshall I. Goldman,1972 An Environmental History of the World J. Donald Hughes,2002-09-26 An Environmental History of the World is a concise history from Ancient to Modern times of the interaction between human societies and the other forms of life that inhabit our planet This original work follows a chronological path through the history of mankind in relationship to ecosystems around the world Each chapter concentrates on a general period in human history which has been characterised by large scale changes in the relationship of human societies to the biosphere and gives three case studies that illustrate the significant patterns occurring at that time Little environmental or historical knowledge is assumed from the reader in this introduction to environmental history The Nature of Soviet Power Andy Bruno,2016-04-11 During the twentieth century the Soviet Union turned the Kola Peninsula in the northwest corner of the country into one of the most populated industrialized militarized and polluted parts of the Arctic This transformation suggests above all that environmental relations fundamentally shaped the Soviet experience Interactions with the natural world both enabled industrial livelihoods and curtailed socialist promises Nature itself was a participant in the communist project Taking a long term comparative perspective The Nature of Soviet Power sees Soviet environmental history as part of the global pursuit for unending economic growth among modern states This in depth exploration of railroad construction the mining and processing of phosphorus rich apatite reindeer herding nickel and copper smelting and energy production in the region examines Soviet cultural perceptions of nature plans for development lived experiences and modifications to the physical world While Soviet power remade nature nature also remade Soviet power Eurasian Environments Nicholas Breyfogle,2018-11-06 Through a series of essays Eurasian Environments prompts us to rethink our understanding of tsarist and Soviet history by placing the human experience within the larger environmental context of flora fauna geology and climate This book is a broad look at the environmental history of Eurasia specifically examining steppe environments hydraulic engineering soil and forestry water pollution fishing and the interaction of the environment and disease vectors Throughout the authors place the history of Imperial Russia and the Soviet Union in a trans chronological comparative context seamlessly linking the local and the global The chapters are rooted in the ecological and geological specificities of place and community while unveiling the broad patterns of human nature relationships across the planet Eurasian Environments brings together an international group scholars working on issues of tsarist Soviet environmental history in an effort to showcase the wave of fascinating and field changing research currently being written The Global 2000 Report to the President: The technical report ,1981 The Global 2000 Report to the President--entering the Twenty-first Century: The technical report Global 2000 Study (U.S.),1980 The Global 2000 Report to the President Gerald O. Barney,Council on Environmental Quality (U.S.),1980 The Global 2000 Report to the President--entering the Twenty-first Century Global 2000 Study (U.S.),1980 Report on world trends and long term prospects regarding population growth natural resources and environmental issues emphasizing the interrelationships between these areas presents integrated approach projections to the year 2000 of fishery resources forests power resources water resources mineral resources agriculture climate and nuclear energy etc And includes a comparison of global model forecasting techniques Diagrams graphs maps references and statistical tables

The Global 2000 Report to the President--entering the Twenty-first Century Council on Environmental Quality (U.S.),1980

The Global 2000 Report to the President of the U.S. Gerald O. Barney,2013-09-24 The Global 2000 Report to the President of the U S presents an interagency report of the 70 year record of Government concern relating to issues in population resources and environment It discusses the interrelatedness of these three factors It addresses all three topics from a relatively long term global perspective and emphasizes interconnections and feedback Some of the topics covered in the book are the projections of the population climate technology and the food and agriculture The analysis of these projections is covered The tools used in the analysis are discussed The text defines the meaning of mesarovic pestel world model carrying capacity stability diversity and ecological buffering A comparison of the resulting projections is presented A chapter of the volume is devoted to the embassy reports on forestry and agricultural trends Another section of the book focuses on the Latin American world model The book will provide useful information to economists political analysts students and researchers
