Tempestuous Petticoat The Story Of An Invincible Edwardian:

Tempestuous Petticoat Clare Leighton, 1947 Life of Marie Connor Leighton Tempestuous Petticoat; the Story of an Invincible Edwardian [by] Clare Leighton Clare Leighton, Tempestuous Petticoat, 1947 The Art of the Reprint Rosalind Parry, 2023-03-30 A rich history of the nineteenth century novel as it was re imagined for everyday readers by extraordinary twentieth century illustrators Edinburgh History of Children's Periodicals Michelle J. Smith, Beth Rodgers, Kristine Moruzi, 2024-04-30 Since the publication of the first children s periodical in the 1750s magazines have been an affordable and accessible way for children to read and form virtual communities Despite the range of children s periodicals that exist they have not been studied to the same extent as children s literature The Edinburgh History of Children s Periodicals marks the first major history of magazines for young people from the mid eighteenth century to the present Bringing together periodicals from Britain Ireland North America Australia New Zealand and India this book explores the roles of gender race and national identity in the construction of children as readers and writers It provides new insights both into how child readers shaped the magazines they read and how magazines have encouraged children to view themselves as political and world subjects Vera Brittain and the First World War Mark Bostridge, 2014-12-04 The inspiration for the film Testament of Youth this book from Mark Bostridge Vera Brittain s biographer tells the story of a remarkable woman and her extraordinary account of the destructive power of war In the midst of her studies at Oxford when war broke out across Europe Vera Brittain left university in 1915 to become a V A D Voluntary Aid Detachment nurse treating soldiers in London Malta and Etaples in France The events of the First World War were to have an enormous impact on her life Four of Brittain s closest friends including her fianc Roland Leighton and her brother Edward Brittain MC were killed in action sparking a lifelong commitment to pacifism In 1933 she published Testament of Youth the first of three books dealing with her experience of war In equal measures courageous tragic and deeply fascinating Testament of Youth is one of the most compelling and important works of war literature ever to have been written by a British woman Mark Bostridge s Vera Brittain and the First World War explores the effects of the First World War on Vera Brittain both in terms of her personal life and in terms of its effect on her development as a writer and her eventual decision to become a pacifist Taking advantage of the interest generated by the film it will bring her story to a new generation and incorporate the most up to date research The book includes a short essay From Book to Film describing the process of turning Testament of Youth into a major feature film This includes interviews with the production staff and actors as well as with members of Vera Brittain s family including Shirley Williams People, Places, Things - Essays by Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Bowen, 2008-11-26 This volume collects for the first time essays published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen s lifetime as well as essays which have never been published before The range of subjects alone makes these essays indispensable reading Throughout her career Elizabeth Bowen the Anglo Irish novelist and short story writer also wrote literary essays that display a shrewd generous intelligence Always sensitive to underlying tensions she evokes the particular climate of countries and places in Hungary Prague and the Crisis and Bowen's Court In Britain in Autumn she records the strained atmosphere of the blitz as no other writer does Immediately after the war she reported on the International Peace Conference in Paris in a series of essays that are startling in their evocation of tense diplomacy among international delegates scrabbling to define the boundaries of Europe and the stakes of the Cold War The aftershock of war registers poignantly in Opening Up the House owners evacuated during the war return to their houses empty since 1939 Other essays in this volume especially those on James Joyce Jane Austen and the technique of writing offer indispensable mid century evaluations of the state of literature The essays assembled in this volume were published in British Irish and American periodicals during Bowen's lifetime She herself did not gather them into any collection Some of these essays exist only as typescript drafts and are published here for the first time Bowen's observations on age toys disappointment charm and manners place her among the very best literary essayists of the modernist period
