Illustrated by Raymond Sheppard Jim Corbett,1957 The Temple Tigers and More Man-eaters of The Inhuman Empire Sadhana Naithani, 2024-05-20 This book is a study of Kumaon James Edward Corbett, 1957 selected texts of British writings on Indian wildlife published between 1860 and 1960 Set in the context of British colonial rule in India this book also reflects on similar situations across the British Empire and other colonial empires The destruction of wildlife in the making of empires is a subject not yet fully explored in scholarship This book aims to speak to global concerns regarding the extinction of several species and shows that the crisis has international roots The Inhuman Empire breaks new grounds as it juxtaposes colonial narratives to folk narratives. These two types of narratives treat nonhuman animals very differently folk narrative considers them sentient beings while colonial narratives see them as game and do not care for their sentience Both types of narratives are further evaluated with reference to the contemporary position of natural sciences regarding animal sentience and of anthropologists and philosophers regarding the relationship between nature and culture Analyzing colonial accounts of hunting the author looks at the pain and suffering of nonhuman animals and combines statistics alongside narratives of British writers Indian populace and nonhuman animals in order to show narratives reflect and impact reality This book will be of great value to those interested in Animal Studies Folkloristics the history of When the Goddess was a Woman ,2011-07-27 Explicitly acknowledging its status as a str dra Colonialism and India veda a Veda for women and the downtrodden the Mah bh rata articulates a promise to bring knowledge of right conduct fundamental ethical philosophical and soteriological teachings and its own grand narrative to all classes of people and all beings Hiltebeitel shows how the Mah bh rata has more than lived up to this promise at least on the ground in Indian folk traditions In this three part volume he journeys over the overlapping terrains of the south Indian cults of Draupad part I and K tt avar part II to explore how the Mah bh rata continues to be such a vital source of meaning and in part III then connects this vital tradition to wider reflections on prehistory sacrifice myth oral epic and modern theatre This two volume edition collects nearly three decades of Alf Hiltebeitel's researches into the Indian epic and religious tradition The two volumes document Hiltebeitel's longstanding fascination with the Sanskrit epics volume 1 presents a series of appreciative readings of the Mah bh rata and to a lesser extent the R m ya a while volume 2 focuses on what Hiltebeitel has called the underground Mah bh rata i e the Mah bh rata as it is still alive in folk and vernacular traditions Recently re edited and with a new set of articles completing a trajectory Hiltebeitel established over 30 years ago this work constitutes a definitive statement from this major scholar Comprehensive indices cross referencing and an exhaustive bibliography make it an essential reference work For more information on the first volume please click here A Companion to Indian Cinema Neepa Majumdar, Ranjani Mazumdar, 2022-08-23 A new collection in the Wiley Blackwell Companions to National Cinemas series featuring the cinemas of India In A Companion to Indian Cinema film scholars Neepa Majumdar and Ranjani Mazumdar along with 25 established and emerging scholars deliver new research on contemporary and historical questions on Indian cinema The collection considers Indian cinema s widespread presence both within and outside the country and pays particular attention to regional cinemas such as Bhojpuri Bengali Malayalam Manipuri and Marathi The volume also reflects on the changing dimensions of technology aesthetics and the archival impulse of film The editors have included scholarship that discusses a range of films and film experiences that include commercial cinema art cinema and non fiction film Even as scholarship on earlier decades of Indian cinema is challenged by the absence of documentation and films the innovative archival and field work in this Companion extends from cinema in early twentieth century India to a historicized engagement with new technologies and contemporary cinematic practices. Dr. Malik S. Rokade ,2022-09-15 The terribly wrong science of ecology as a faculty of study deals extensively with myriad aspects related to fundamental elements existing in the universe Along with various aspects manages cooperation between singular living beings and their surroundings which incorporates connections with both nonspecific and individuals from different species. The interaction amplifies proportion and ratio of enquiry into relationship among various elements existing in environment and their interlinking the aspect has proved to be beneficial in terms of internalizing characteristic features and delineate explicit patterns of ecology in the Silent Places Peter Hathaway Capstick, 1989-04-15 From the master of adventure behind the classic Death in the Long Grass former big game hunter Peter Hathaway Capstick now turns from his own exploits to those of some of the greatest hunters of the past with Death in the Silent Places With his characteristic color and flair Capstick recalls the extraordinary careers of men like Colonel J H Patterson and Colonel Jim Corbett who stalked legendary man eaters through the silent darkness on opposite sides of the world men like Karamojo Bell acknowledged as the greatest elephant hunter of all time men like the valiant Sasha Siemel who tracked killer jaguars though the Matto Grosso armed only with a spear With an authenticity gained by having shared the experiences he writes of Capstick eloquently recreates the acrid taste of terror in the mouth of a man whose gun has jammed as a lion begins his charge the exhilaration of tracking and finding a long sought prey the bravery and even nobility of performing under circumstances of primitive and savage stress with death all around in the silent places of the wilderness Bob Kuhn James McNutt, 2012-09-05 For those of us who portray wildlife our decision to persist in our quest for excellence is almost always based on a love affair a fascination with the creatures of our planet and a need to share this feeling the best way we know how So said wildlife artist Robert Kuhn 1920 2007 who spent a lifetime sketching and painting animals and generously mentoring other artists Bob Kuhn Drawing on Instinct presents a generous sampling of his rarely seen sketches alongside the vibrant paintings for which he is best known Appearing in conjunction with a traveling exhibit mounted by the National Museum of Wildlife Art in Jackson Wyoming this book allows readers to observe the artistic process of one of the greatest wildlife artists of our time Curator Adam Duncan Harris provides an introduction and a biography of Kuhn along with an examination of his working method In addition Bob Kuhn features four substantive essays by leading authorities on American art James H Nottage of the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art Amy Scott of the Autry National Center Lisa M Strong of the Corcoran Gallery of Art and Todd Wilkinson of Wildlife Art Journal and other publications These contributions written from a variety of art historical perspectives set Kuhn's oeuvre within the cultural context in which he worked and deepen our understanding of his achievements Complementing the essays are brief appreciations by six of Kuhn's contemporaries and three samples of the artist s own writing Bob Kuhn Drawing on Instinct offers a compelling blend of the artist s finished paintings and finest sketches works of art in their own right This lavishly illustrated book is a fitting tribute that will further establish Bob Kuhn s place in the pantheon of late twentieth century American artists Man the Hunted Donna Hart, 2018-04-17 Man the Hunted argues that primates including the earliest members of the human family have evolved as the prey of any number of predators including wild cats and dogs hyenas snakes crocodiles and even birds The authors studies of predators on monkeys and apes are supplemented here with the observations of naturalists in the field and revealing interpretations of the fossil record Eyewitness accounts of the man the hunted drama being played out even now give vivid evidence of its prehistoric significance This provocative view of human evolution suggests that countless adaptations that have allowed our species to survive from larger brains to speech stem from a considerably more vulnerable position on the food chain than we might like to imagine The myth of early humans as fearless hunters dominating the earth obscures our origins as just one of many species that had to be cautious depend on other group members communicate danger and come to terms with being merely one cog in the complex cycle of life Up the Mountains of India Mala Kumar, 2022-04-25 How did a whale go up the Himalayas Where would you find a spider shaped like the Sorting Hat in Harry Potter stories On which peaks and slopes can you find both snow and coffee beans sometimes Up which hill is the observatory that helped to sight a super Neptune sized planet Put on your climbing boots to find out hundreds of fascinating facts about our country's best known mountain ranges the Himalayas the Trans Himalayas the Aravallis the Vindhyas the Satpuras the North east mountains the Eastern Ghats and the Western Ghats Find out how each range was formed discover the plants trees and wildlife on them and do your bit to save them from getting destroyed Meet amazing communities who live in harmony with nature even now Clap for the scientists who look under rocks and into tree holes for new species of flora and fauna And once you have worked up an appetite the yummy dishes of the hills will fill you right up bamboo biryani anyone From ice stupas and battles in the snow to floating schools and Titanosaurus eggs from wool gatherers and medicine makers to the fastest diving bird and a tiger that could win the Best Dad award this book filled with photos and illustrations will take you on an exciting climb up and down the Dalit Literature Amar Nath Prasad, M.
