Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing s writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm, Cheryl Alexander Malcolm, 2008-10-20 A COMPANION TO THE BRITISH AND IRISH SHORT STORY A COMPANION TO THE BRITISH AND RISH SHORT STORY A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story chronicles the development of this important literary form in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Part I covers the years up to 1945 and examines the short fiction that emerged around such themes as imperial adventures responses to war and detective and crime stories Authors covered in this period include Robert Louis Stevenson James Joyce Liam O Flaherty and Elizabeth Bowen Part II reflects the range of themes and richer diversity of authorship that developed during the postwar years including feminist writings gay and lesbian fiction science fiction fantasy and short stories by Asian and Afro Caribbean writers Doris Lessing Angela Carter Hanif Kureishi J G Ballard and Ben Okri are just some of the authors discussed in these chapters Incorporating a wide range of approaches A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story captures the astonishing range of modern short fiction produced in Britain and Ireland from the end of the nineteenth century Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women s literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries Stories Doris

Lessing, 2010-02-10 This major collection contains all of Doris Lessing's short fiction other than the stories set in Africa from the beginning of her career until now Set in London Paris the south of France the English countryside these thirty five stories reflect the themes that have always characterized Lessing's work the bedrock realities of marriage and other relationships between men and women the crisis of the individual whose very psyche is threatened by a society unattuned to its own most dangerous qualities the fate of women
