In Sync with the Sacred, Out of Step with the World Tom Stella, 2023-10-11 What does it mean to live in sync with the sacred For Tom Stella it means living an authentic life It means stepping to the cadence of the sacred which requires a specific type of courage the courage to be different to stand out to be odd and perhaps even considered a threat by those who find their identity comfort and security in the status quo the conventional The good news is that we can do this while conducting our everyday lives Unlike Thoreau who felt he had to retreat to Walden Pond to live deliberately to front only the essential facts of life and see if I could not learn what it had to teach we don't have to retreat to the woods According to Stella authenticity is first and foremost a matter of being attuned and responsive to the sacred within to an instinct an intuition a sixth sense a deep voiceless voice that can be heard even in a crowd This inner guide may at times call us to live apart from others but it surely summons us to follow a road less traveled that is to turn away from the conventional wisdom of society those ways of thinking believing and behaving that go unquestioned busy is good more is better success equals wealth Welcome to a refreshing version of spirituality Beauty Roger Housden, 2012-11-13 When Roger Housden decided to travel to Iran and finally see the subject of his youthful fascination he was in his sixties By then he thought he had seen the world He was wrong It was a quest that changed him forever In Iran Housden met with artists writers film makers and religious scholars who embody the long Iranian tradition of humanism and shared with him their belief in scholarship and artistry From the bustle of modern Tehran to the paradise gardens of Shiraz to the spectacular mosques and ancient palaces of Isfahan Housden met Iranians who were warm welcoming generous intellectually curious and altogether alive with their love for one another and for the faith and tradition that holds them together Saved by Beauty weaves a richly textured story of many threads It is a deeply poetic and perceptive appreciation of a culture that has endured for over three thousand years while it also portrays the creative and spiritual cultures within contemporary Iran While there Roger Housden was brought face to face with the reality that beauty and truth deceit and violence are inextricably mingled in the affairs of human life and was forever altered by it Seven Sins for a Life Worth Living Roger Housden, 2005-12-06 Conventional wisdom says Roger Housden tells us that nobody goes to heaven for having a good time Seven Sins for a Life Worth Living then is a refreshing liberating and decidedly welcome dose of unconventional wisdom that awakens us to the simple delights and transformative joys of the world around us With elegance gentle humor and remarkable openness Housden takes us along as he recalls his personal journey toward an appreciation of what he calls the Seven Pleasure of All Five Senses The Pleasure of Being Foolish The Pleasure of Not Knowing The Pleasure of Not Being Perfect The Pleasure of Doing Nothing Useful The Pleasure of Being Ordinary and The Pleasure of Coming Home Housden writes for instance of submitting to the ultimate folly of falling in love of celebrating our imperfections of coming to understand the virtues of the Slow Food movement while enjoying an all afternoon lunch in a small French village and of discovering in a Saharan cave that however extraordinary our surroundings we are human a glorious nothing much to speak of and learning to be at peace with the notion Such pleasures may be suspect in today s achievement driven tightly scheduled relent lessly self improving conspicuously consumptive culture but surely the greater sin lies in letting them slip away moment by precious moment The purpose of this book says Housden is to inspire you to lighten up and fall in love with the world and all that is in it Reading it is a pleasure indeed When you die God and the angels will hold you accountable for all the pleasures you were allowed in life that you denied yourself Roger Housden author of the bestselling Ten Poems series presents a joyously affirmative warmly personal and spiritually illuminating meditation on the virtues of opening ourselves up to pleasures like being foolish not being perfect and doing nothing useful the pleasure of not knowing and even would you believe it the pleasure of being ordinary Making Nothing Happen Gavin D'Costa, Eleanor Nesbitt, Mark Pryce, Ruth Shelton, 2018-10-24 Making Nothing Happen is a conversation between five poet theologians who are broadly within the Christian tradition Nicola Slee Ruth Shelton Mark Pryce Eleanor Nesbitt and Gavin D Costa Together they form The Diviners a group which has been meeting together for a number of years for poetry and theological and literary reflection Each poet offers an illuminating reflection on how they understand the relation between poetry and faith rooting their reflections in their own writing and illustrating discussion with a selection of their own poems The poets open up issues for deeper exploration and reflection including the nature of creativity and the distinction between divine and human creation the creative process as exploration epiphany and revelation the forging of identity through writing ways in which the arts reflect challenge and dialogue with faith and faith can inform and challenge the arts power and voice in poetry and faith and ways in which race gender and culture interact with and shape poetic and theological discourse This book will be of interest to poets and theologians to all who read poetry and are interested in the connections between literature and faith to those seeking inspiration for preaching liturgy and pastoral care and to those committed to the practice and nurturing of a contemplative attitude to life in which profound attention and respect are offered to words and to the creative Word at work Finding God Beyond Religion Tom Stella, 2013-03-01 Take Your Understanding of Church Teachings from Limiting to Life Giving Free Your Faith to Flourish No longer sustained by easy answers we may find ourselves standing before a three pronged fork in the road we can wander in the direction of conventional beliefs and practices we can reject God and turn away from religion altogether or we can embrace our uncertainty as an invitation to a more vital understanding of both God and religion from the Introduction Do you describe yourself as spiritual but not religious Whether young or old church connected or not are you spiritually restless for an authentic faith life but do not find conventional religious teachings pertinent to you This accessible guide to a meaningful spiritual life is a salve for your soul It reinterprets traditional religious teachings central to the Christian faith God Jesus faith prayer morality and more in ways that connect with people who have outgrown the beliefs and devotional practices that once made sense to them It helps you find new ways to understand and relate to traditional narrowly defined Christian truths that honor their full spiritual power and scope and opens your mind and heart to the full impact of Christian teachings The Gift of Now Eleanor Vaughan, Judith Pierson, 2012-04-11
