The Other Global City Shail Mayaram, 2009-01-13 What is a Global City Who authorizes the World Class City This edited volume interrogates the global cities literature which views the city as a shimmering financial global network Through a historical ethnographic exploration of inter ethnic relations in the other global cities of Cairo Beirut Istanbul Bukhara Lhasa Delhi Singapore Kuala Lumpur and Tokyo the well known contributors highlight cartographies of the Other Global City The volume contends that thinking about the city in the longue duree and as part of a topography of interconnected regions contests both imperial and nationalist ways of reading cities that have occasioned the many and particularly violent territorial partitions in Asia and the world

Beyond the Genre Stefano Calzati, 2018-11-26 What is the cultural value of travel writing today How is the genre affected by instant communication and digital technologies This volume provides answers to these questions through adopting a transmedial perspective by comparing printed travel books and travel blogs Notably it explores how different editorial and medial choices impact on the cultural practices of travelling and writing Methodologically an ethnography is proposed via the discussion of a number of original interviews collected over three years with contemporary travel authors and bloggers who journeyed around and wrote about China These writers are from both the West the UK the USA Italy France New Zealand and China Hong Kong and the Mainland. As such the volume not only deconstructs the English centredness and ethnocentrism that often affect travel writing as a genre as well as many studies on it but it also renews the academic debate on the politics behind the genre connecting the texts with their spheres of production and reception. The study shows the interdependence between medial and literary features on the one hand and the ways of journeying and writing about the experience which largely depend upon the biography of each writer on the other.
