Ten Times Black

Shirley A. Jackson, Laurie L. Gordy

Ten Times Black:

Legitimacy in the Modern State John H. Schaar, 1981-01-01 This analysis of the concept of authority in Western society constitutes a central work in political sociology and a fundamental critique of the process of modernization Schaar proposes that legitimate authority is declining in the modern state Law and order in a very real sense is the basic political issue of our time one that conservatives have understood with greater clarity than their liberal adversaries Schaar sees what were once authoritative institutions and ideas yielding to technological and bureaucratic orders The later brings physical comfort and a sense of collective power but does not provide political liberty or moral autonomy As a result he argues all modern states exhibiting this transformation of authority into technology are well advanced along the path of a crisis of legitimacy

Caged Women Shirley A. Jackson, Laurie L. Gordy, 2018-06-13 The Netflix series Orange Is the New Black has drawn widespread attention to many of the dysfunctions of prisons and the impact prisons have on those who live and work behind the prison gates This anthology deepens this public awareness through scholarship on the television program and by exploring the real world social psychological and legal issues female prisoners face Each chapter references a particular connection to the Netflix series as its starting point of analysis The book brings together scholars to consider both media representations as well as the social justice issues for female inmates alluded to in the Netflix series Orange Is the New Black The chapters address myriad issues including cultural representations of race class gender and sexuality social justice issues for transgender inmates racial dynamics within female prisons gender and female prison structures policies treatment of women in prison re incarcerated and previously incarcerated women self and identity gender race and sentencing and reproduction and parenting for female inmates

Dreams of Other Worlds Chris Impey, Holly Henry, 2016-04-19 The story of unmanned space exploration from Viking to today Dreams of Other Worlds describes the unmanned space missions that have opened new windows on distant worlds Spanning four decades of dramatic advances in astronomy and planetary science this book tells the story of eleven iconic exploratory missions and how they have fundamentally transformed our scientific and cultural perspectives on the universe and our place in it The journey begins with the Viking and Mars Exploration Rover missions to Mars which paint a startling picture of a planet at the cusp of habitability It then moves into the realm of the gas giants with the Voyager probes and Cassini's ongoing exploration of the moons of Saturn The Stardust probe's dramatic round trip encounter with a comet is brought vividly to life as are the SOHO and Hipparcos missions to study the Sun and Milky Way This stunningly illustrated book also explores how our view of the universe has been brought into sharp focus by NASA's great observatories Spitzer Chandra and Hubble and how the WMAP mission has provided rare glimpses of the dawn of creation Dreams of Other Worlds reveals how these unmanned exploratory missions have redefined what it means to be the temporary tenants of a small planet in a vast cosmos

The Epic Trickster in American Literature Gregory E. Rutledge, 2013-04-26 Just as Africa and the West have traditionally fit into binaries of Darkness Enlightenment Savage Modern Ugly Beautiful and Ritual Art among others much of Western cultural production rests upon the archetypal binary of Trickster Epic with trickster aesthetics and commensurate cultural forms characterizing Africa Challenging this binary and the exceptionalism that underlies anti-hegemonic efforts even today this book begins with the scholarly foundations that mapped out African trickster continuities in the United States and excavated the aesthetics of traditional African epic performances Rutledge locates trickster-like capacities within the epic hero archetype the epic trickster paradigm and constructs an Homeric Diaspora which is to say that the modern Homeric performance foundation lies at an absolute time and distance away from the ancient storytelling performance needed to understand the cautionary aesthetic inseparable from epic potential As traditional epic performances demonstrate unchecked epic trickster dynamism anticipates not only brutal imperialism and creative diversity but the greatest threat to everyone an eco apocalypse Relying upon the preeminent scholarship on African American trickster heroes traditional African heroic performances and cultural studies approaches to Greco Roman epics Rutledge traces the epic trickster aesthetic through three seminal African American novels keenly attuned to the American Homeric Diaspora Charles Chesnutt s The Marrow of Tradition Richard Wright s Native Son and Toni Morrison s Beloved Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization).,2008 Cancer Patient Survival Report National Cancer Institute (U.S.),1976
