The History of Zeta Tau Alpha, 1898-1928 Mrs. Shirley Kreasan Krieg, 1928      Celia's Story Through the Eyes of Texas Grandma Kathryn Allen, 2014-10-03 Celia's story came about after the death of her daddy. Being that Texas Grandma lost her daddy as a child also and that there was no one to tell his story, Texas Grandma gained a strong desire to write all my memories of Celia from birth to now and tell all my memories of our son so his children would at least have memories of their daddy to help keep his memory alive and real to us all. As I started, Texas Grandpa started adding his memories also. These are memories of events and sayings from both Celia and Kyle throughout their lives. We want Celia to share this story with Asha and especially with Ephraim since he was so small for them at least have these words down to help him know the father who was so proud of all three of them and for them to know that we will be here for them as long as we live. The love we have for them and the love we had for our son never dies.

The Afterlife Donald Antrim, 2024-03-26 From a fiercely intelligent writer, The New York Times, a wry poignant story of the difficult love between a mother and a son. In the winter of 2000, shortly after his mother's death from cancer and malnourishment, Donald Antrim, author of the absurdist visionary masterworks Elect Mr Robinson for a Better World, The Hundred Brothers and The Verificationist, began writing about his family. In pieces that appeared in The New Yorker and were anthologized in Best American Essays, Antrim explored his intense and complicated relationships with his mother, Louanne, an artist and teacher who was at her worst a ferociously destabilized and destabilizing alcoholic; his gentle grandfather who lived in the mountains of North Carolina and who always hoped to save his daughter from herself; and his father who married Louanne twice. The Afterlife is not a temporally linear coming-of-age memoir; instead, Antrim follows a logic of unconscious life, of dreams and memories of fantasies and psychoses, the way in which the world of the alcoholic becomes a sleepless atemporal world. In it, he comes to terms with and fails to come to terms with the nature of addiction and the broken states of loneliness, shame, and loss that remain beyond his power to fully repair. This is a tender and even blackly hilarious portrait of a family, faulty, cracked, enraging. It is also the story of the way the author works: in part, through writing this book to become a man more fully alive to himself and to others, a man capable of a life in which he may never learn or ever hope to know the nature of his origins.
