Tensions Between the Churches of the First World and the Third World Virgilio P. Elizondo, Norbert Greinacher, 1981 Part of an annual 10 issue series this volume explores contemporary tensions between Christian Churches in the Euro American world     Tensions Between the Churches of the First World and the Third World Virgilio P. Elizondo, Norbert

Greinacher, 1981 Part of an annual 10 issue series this volume explores contemporary tensions between Christian Churches in the Euro American world     The Living Church , 1949     The Twentieth Century Gregory Baum, 1999-01-01 An examination of the impact of major historical events of the 20th century on the interpretation theologians have given of the Christian message Events include the World Wars the Russian Revolution the Great Depression Nazism the Holocaust welfare capitalism and the free market economy There follow reflections from a contemporary perspective on important cultural and religious developments of the 20th century     The Convergence of Theology Gerald O'Collins, 2001 The Convergence of Theology is a collection of essays written to honor Gerald O Collins S J beloved and highly esteemed author lecturer and professor of theology at the Gregorian University in Rome for his 70th birthday The 21 essays revolve around four different areas I New Testament Studies II Vatican I Vatican II and Catholic Theology III Fundamental Theology and Spirituality IV Resurrection and Christology     An Immigration of Theology Simon C. Kim, 2012-05-03 The theological reflections of Virgilio Elizondo and Gustavo Gutierrez are examples of the ecclesial fruitfulness of the second half of the twentieth century Following the directives of Pope John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council Elizondo and Gutierrez present the Gospel message in relevant terms to their own people by engaging the world as the Church of the poor Inspired by this moment in Church history while at the same time recognizing the plight of their people in their poor and marginal existence Elizondo and Gutierrez discovered a new way of doing theology by asking a specific set of questions based on their local context By investigating where God is present in the border crossers of the southwestern United States and the poorest of the poor in Latin America both theologians have uncovered a hermeneutical lens in rereading Scripture and deepening our understanding of ecclesial tradition Elizondo's mestizaje and Gutierrez's preferential option for the poor arose out of a theology of context a theological method that takes seriously the contextual circumstances of their locale By utilizing the common loci theologici of Scripture and tradition in conjunction with context and their own experience Elizondo and Gutierrez illustrate through their theologies how every group must embrace their own unique theological reflection

Ungodly Rage Donna Steichen, 1991-01-01 Written by a Catholic journalist who has investigated feminism on its own ground this remarkable book fully exposes the hidden face of Catholic feminism for the first time revealing its theoretical and psychological roots in loss of faith A definitive account of a movement impelled by vengeful rage to revolt against all spiritual authority     Back to the Rough Grounds of Praxis Daniel Franklin Pilario, 2005 What is praxis How do we do theology from its perspective These are the main questions which this book seeks to answer As propaedeutic to theological reflection it surveys the notion of praxis in the philosophical sociological and anthropological traditions from Aristotle and Marx to contemporary theories. It argues that Pierre Bourdieu's theory of practice achieves a critical synthesis of these different traditions, making it a viable theological dialogue partner. Bourdieu provides us with a praxeological theory to scrutinize the complexity of the social realm and an epistemological theory to understand the mystery of God's presence in these socio-historical conjunctures which serve as the privileged and only locus of His/Her revelation. The author thus engages two theologians who take praxis/practice as central to their theological methods: Clodovis Boff (liberation theology) and John Milbank (radical orthodoxy). From the perspective of its appropriated framework, this work attempts to avoid the limitations as well as preserve the gains achieved by these two approaches as it also explores the rudiments of a theological method relevant to our post-Marxist and postmodern global contexts.

Theology in Japan J. Nelson Jennings, 2005. Japanese Christian leader Takakura Tokutaro (1885-1934) is the focus of this exhaustive historical and theological study. Takakura's life spanned a critical period in developing Japan, a new member of the modern family of nations. At the age of 21, through the preaching of the immensely influential church leader Uemura Masahisa, Takakura converted to the Christian faith. He later spent over two years in the West, reading extensively in British and German theology. Takakura thus faced the challenge of absorbing numerous lines of influence and re-articulating the Christian faith within his own generation's distinctly Japanese linguistic and religio-cultural context. His personal religious experience was a microcosm of the universalization of Christian theology during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Despite having played important leadership roles within the Protestant Church in Japan during the 1920s and early 1930s, Takakura's name is scarcely known outside limited Japanese theological circles. This study lends recognition to his influential role in the Christian Church. It also utilizes Takakura's example to provide further insight into the universalizing trend in Christian thought that continues even today.

House of Disciples Michael H. Crosby, 2004-01-28. The household was the basic unit of the early church; it also constituted the basic unit of political economy until the Industrial Revolution. This richly detailed work uses the notion of house as a unifying theme, establishing the identity and concerns of the early Christian churches. What emphases did Matthew's gospel have for that audience which Crosby establishes was urban-based and prosperous, and what does it mean to First World Christians today? Through an in-depth exploration of Matthew's gospel and its socioeconomic milieu, House of Disciples shows how the world of the early church continues to challenge Christians nineteen hundred years later. It makes a unique contribution to both New Testament scholarship and the practice of a contemporary spirituality.

Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N. Leustean, 2014-05-30. This book provides an up-to-date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe, the Middle East, America, Africa, Asia, and Australia. Written by leading international scholars in the field, it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day. The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church-state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns.

opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century
