STORY Convinced by written instructions from heaven that the poor misshapen creature to which his daughter has given birth is the Messiah the Reverend Ed Tarbox kidnaps the baby from the Arkansas laboratory where it is being studied christen 1889 Camp Meeting Sermons Alonzo T. Jones, Ellen G. White, 2012-07 On Tuesday May 7 1889 at eight o'clock in the evening Ellen G White arrived at the Ottawa Kansas Camp Meeting where combined meetings for organization delegations and conference work was being done This Camp Meeting took place approximately six months after the historic 1888 General Conference at Minneapolis and the passionate sermons given by Alonzo T Jones Mrs White and others have given clearer insights to the 1888 message The Free Methodist ,1900 This is that Aimee Semple McPherson, 1919
Mobilization against Asylum Seekers in Contemporary Urban Spaces Iris Beau Segers, 2022-03-03 This book investigates the issue of local mobilization against asylum seekers in urban areas which are often disproportionately affected by complex issues related to immigration and integration as well as socio economic development and growing inequalities Based on ethnographic research in the city of Rotterdam it explores the conditions under which mobilization against the establishment of an asylum seekers centre emerged offering a combined analysis of interviews social media and mainstream media to demonstrate the key role played by storytelling in the development of opposition to the arrival of asylum seekers Presenting a theoretical model of anti immigration mobilization that connects the social importance of storytelling to broader socio political developments and conditions this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and politics with interests in migration social movements and mobilization around contentious issues Christian Thought ,1907 Literacy and Religion Cushla Kapitzke, 1995-01-01 This book explores the interrelation of literacy and religion as practiced by Western Christians in first historical contexts and second in one contemporary church setting Using both a case study and a Foucauldian theoretical framework the book provides a sustained analysis of the reciprocal discursive construction of literacy religiosity and identity in one Seventh day Adventist Church community of Northern Australia Critical linguistic and discourse analytic theory is used to disclose processes of theological church familial home and educational school normalisation of community members into regulated ways of hearing and speaking reading and writing being and believing Detailed analyses of spoken and written texts taken from institutional and local community settings show how textual religion is an exemplary technology of the self a politics constituted by canonical texts interpretive norms textual practices ritualised events and sociopolitical protocols that ultimately are turned in upon the self The purpose of these analyses is to show how across denominational difference in belief tradition and practice particular versions of self and society are constructed through economies of truth from text that constrain what can and cannot be articulated and enacted by believers

The Editorial, 1916 Proud Outcast W. Michael Farmer, 2024-07-22 Defying betrayal and hardship Chato fights to save his family and his people's rightful place in the West As the Apache Wars roar toward their conclusion in the summer of 1886 renowned Apache army scout and leader Chato joins a delegation of scouts to Washington D C to meet President Grover Cleveland Their mission To plead their case for the Chiricahua scouts to remain at Fort Apache and cultivate their lands in peace For his unwavering loyalty and service Chato is awarded a silver medal from Cleveland along with the implied promise that the scouts can stay where they are However after Geronimo's surrender Chato and his fellow scouts are instead transported to the harsh confines of Fort Marion Florida as prisoners of war They and the Chiricahua people as a whole will be deprived of their freedom and their way of life for the next three decades Finally freed in the wake of Geronimo's death the tribe returns to New Mexico to start over But Geronimo's longstanding assertion that Chato is a liar and traitor casts a long shadow Shunned by the very people he has spent his life fighting for Chato nevertheless remains defiant his resilient spirit never wavering despite the heavy toll of his life's trials Will Rogers Medallion winning author W Michael Farmer masterfully concludes Chato's epic tale illuminating the resilience of a leader determined to preserve his people's heritage against overwhelming odds Proud Outcast is a tale of honor survival and the relentless pursuit of a place to call home

My Story Tom Loftin Johnson, 1993 In cooperation with The Western Reserve Historical Society Produced shortly before his death in 1911 and long since out of print provides a rare personal insight into the career and philosophy of one of the most prominent figures of the American progressive Era Influenced by the single tax proposals of Henry George Johnson gave up a prosperous business career to become a reform politician He was elected first to the U S House of Representatives then served as mayor of Cleveland from 1901 to 1909 instituting sweeping reforms His championship of municipal ownership professional management of city departments and broad public involvement in government makes Johnson's mayoral administration one of the most celebrated in Cleveland's history as well as a focal point for scholars studying the Progressive Era

Oral Roberts David Edwin Harrell, Jr., 1985-09-22 This book may give you the best opportunity of deciding the truth about me and the ministry I hold so dear Oral Roberts Among several biographies of Oral Roberts the most recent most accurate and best documented is Oral Roberts An American Life an objective impressive study New York Review of Books Oral Roberts An American Life is more than the story of a well known evangelist and educator It is the story of a part of the American religious life that not many Americans know or understand Dr Harrell has researched thoroughly and written superbly Billy Graham a first rate biography one which should give pause to Roberts supporters and critics alike Roberts first scholarly biographer has done a beautiful job Allen Boyer Newsday

The Institute Tie, 1916 Hiding in the Light Cy Emery, 2017-09-25 Hiding in the Light is a young adult action adventure coming of age story about the effects of bullying and the measures one takes to be accepted Set in the South in the late 1960's it's the journey of Joseph Graham's efforts to find himself and accept himself while facing the injustices of adversaries They mock his differences His looks his speech and his thoughts are different from the other boys This brings unwanted attention from the neighborhood bullies The bullies and the affluent within his community all draw lines in the sand and Joseph is pushed to the middle He searches for a way to escape his life of lack But poverty anger and abuse offer no open doors So he struggles to stand and fight the slings and arrows of his haters until his moral compass is shattered Joseph becomes a pawn in the street game of thuggery Trying hard to prove himself and fit in he takes on the persona of his alter ego Through this fictional character he is able to hide his sorrows in the light He pretends the hurt doesn't hurt until he loses himself within his alter ego and spirals out of control landing at death's door All while the bullies continue to sucker punch him with their verbal beat downs It wasn't until he met the one he calls The Smartest Man Alive that his sun began to shine

Mount Tabor Mount Tabor Historical Society, 2007 One of New Jersey's earliest permanent Methodist camp meeting grounds Mount Tabor embodied the austere evangelical fervor of 1869 Canvas tents on 16 by 25 foot leased lots surrounded Trinity Park the focal point of all religious and social activity for 10 days in late August The camp meetings were hugely successful and the growing community needed more permanent housing Narrow two story Victorian cottages with intricate porches and balconies began to sprout on the lots In 1885 the octagonal shaped tabernacle with its soaring walls and heaven high ceiling was built As early as 1891 the religious summer colony expanded its recreational activities and by 1912 Mount Tabor was more of a summer resort than religious retreat After World War II most of the 350 cottages were converted to year round use and Mount Tabor became a community within Parsippany welcoming people from all religions and backgrounds Today the unpretentious charm of its humble beginnings permeates the quaint community and modern residents like their forebears are drawn to the rich spiritual heritage of goodwill and the delightful cottages that invite fellowship
