The Voyage of Bran, Son of Febal, to the Land of the Living ,1897 Geography and Enlightenment David N. Livingstone,Charles W. J. Withers,1999-12-15 Geography and Enlightenment explores both the Enlightenment as a geographical phenomenon and the place of geography in the Enlightenment From wide ranging disciplinary and topical perspectives contributors consider the many ways in which the world of the long eighteenth century was brought to view and shaped through map and text exploration and argument within and across spatial and intellectual borders The first set of chapters charts the intellectual and geographical contexts in which Enlightenment ideas began to form including both the sites in which knowledge was created and discussed and the different means used to investigate the globe Detailed explorations of maps created during this period show how these new ways of representing the world and its peoples influenced conceptions of the nature and progress of human societies while studies of the travels of people and ideas reveal the influence of far flung places on Enlightenment science and scientific credibility The final set of chapters emphasizes the role of particular local contexts in Enlightenment thought Contributors are Michael T Bravo Paul Carter Denis Cosgrove Stephen Daniels Matthew Edney Anne Marie Claire Godlewska Peter Gould Michael Heffernan David N Livingstone Dorinda Outram Chris Philo Roy Porter Nicolaas Rupke Susanne Seymour Charles Watkins and Charles W J Withers Grass Creek/Cody Wilderness United States. Man in the Landscape Paul Shepard,2010-07-01 A pioneering exploration of the roots of our attitudes toward nature Paul Shepard s most seminal work is as challenging and provocative today as when it first appeared in 1967 Man in the Landscape was among the first books of a new genre that has elucidated the ideas beliefs and images that lie behind our modern destruction and conservation of the natural world Departing from the traditional study of land use as a history of technology this book explores the emergence of modern attitudes in literature art and architecture their evolutionary past and their taproot in European and Mediterranean cultures With humor and wit Shepard considers the influence of Christianity on ideas of nature the absence of an ethic of nature in modern philosophy and the obsessive themes of dominance and control as elements of the modern mind In his discussions of the exploration of the American West the establishment of the first national parks and the reactions of pioneers to their totally new habitat he identifies the transport of traditional imagery into new places as a sort of cultural baggage
