The Future Of The United Nations System Potential For The Twentyfirst Century:

The United Nations System Chadwick F. Alger Professor Emeritus, 2005-11-21 From the beginnings of the Cold War to efforts to control Saddam Hussein's weapons program this indispensable guide to the history and workings of the UN system shows how this widely misunderstood organization has helped to make the world a safer place and what its future prospects are likely to be Rising from the ashes of World War II the UN's birth was announced on October 24 1945 Its military arm began in 1948 with the deployment of just 36 soldiers tasked with supervising a fragile cease fire in the Arab Israeli conflict Since then it has undertaken more than 50 peacekeeping missions and concluded 500 multilateral conventions on human rights arms control environment terrorism and many other subjects The United Nations System examines the continuing controversy that surrounds this organization Whereas conservatives accuse the UN of wavering in the face of gross violations of its own resolutions by Saddam Hussein many liberals have lambasted it for failing to take decisive action against genocide in the Balkans and in Rwanda Highly readable and packed with useful facts and illustrations this book is essential reading for those who wish to make up their own minds The Future of the United Nations System Chadwick F. Alger, 1998 What does the future hold for the UN In this book twenty two scholars from all continents contribute twelve chapters that cover prevention of violence creating economic and social structures that sustain human fulfilment sharing and protecting the commons and peace education The search for future potential based on experience in these twelve laboratories leads to sixty six recommendations for new institutions and programs on issues that include controlling weapons humanitarian intervention collaboration between UN peacekeepers and NGOs human rights economic policies advancement of women refugees ecological security communications and peace education These recommendations are brought together in a concluding chapter and summarized in the appendix Most of the recommendations do not require amendments to the UN Charter or to the treaties establishing the UN Specialized Agencies Instead their implementation would require creative efforts of Member States secretariats NGOs and dedicated individuals that are pointed toward attainment of multilateral capacity for coping with an array of global problems that increasingly threaten the quality of human life This is stimulating reading for anyone who wants to be challenged to think creatively about the potential for coping with a growing array of global problems
