The Eccentric Design Form In The Classic American Novel:

The Eccentric Design Marius Bewley,1959 The Eccentric Design Marius Bewley,1959 The Last of the Mohicans James Fenimore Cooper,1982-06-01 The wild rush of action in this classic frontier adventure story has made The Last of the Mohicans the most popular of James Fenimore Cooper s Leatherstocking Tales Deep in the forests of upper New York State the brave woodsman Hawkeye Natty Bumppo and his loyal Mohican friends Chingachgook and Uncas become embroiled in the bloody battles of the French and Indian War The abduction of the beautiful Munro sisters by hostile savages the treachery of the renegade brave Magua the ambush of innocent settlers and the thrilling events that lead to the final tragic confrontation between rival war parties create an unforgettable spine tingling picture of life on the frontier And as the idyllic wilderness gives way to the forces of civilization the novel presents a moving portrayal of a vanishing race and the end of its way of life in the great American forests The American Classics Denis Donoghue,2008-10-01 How is a classic book to be defined How much time must elapse before a work may be judged a classic And among all the works of American literature which deserve the designation In this provocative new book Denis Donoghue essays to answer these questions He presents his own short list of relative classics works whose appeal may not be universal but which nonetheless have occupied an important place in our culture for more than a century These books have survived the abuses of time neglect contempt indifference willful readings excesses of praise and hyperbole Donoghue bestows the term classic on just five American works Melville s Moby Dick Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter Thoreau s Walden Whitman s Leaves of Grass and Twain s Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Examining each in a separate chapter he discusses how the writings have been received and interpreted and he offers his own contemporary readings suggesting for example that in the post 9 11 era Moby Dick may be rewardingly read as a revenge tragedy Donoghue extends an irresistible invitation to open the pages of these American classics again demonstrating with wit and acuity how very much they have to say to us now Mapping the World of Anglo-American Studies at the Turn of the Century Marija Knežević,2015-10-05 This volume revisits the most important issues that Anglo American studies are facing at the beginning of the twenty first century with regards to both research and teaching Given the English language s status as a lingua franca the culture that produced it and that has been changing it the literature written in English and relevant linguistic and literary discourse have come to largely dominate critical theory globally Therefore the subjects of Anglo American studies and their traditional and modern concepts must be approached from a multidisciplinary perspective and must also be problematized in and determined by other spheres of the world especially at the universities at which they are studied This book consequently approaches both mainstream cultural literary linguistic and academic achievements and often by way of comparison those smaller more distant and marginalized fields traditionally subordinate studies as well as instances of cultural hybridization Given its concern with a broad field of culture literature linguistics and methodology of teaching English as a foreign language this book consists of two main parts comprising the closest research and teaching fields one attending to culture and literature and the other approaching linguistics and methodology The Corporeal Self Sharon Cameron,1991 The Corporeal Self argues that questions about identity conceived in bodily terms are not only relevant for Melville and Hawthorne the two nineteenth century authors whose works are positioned at opposite extremes of the consideration of human identity but lie at the heart of the American literary tradition and have in that tradition their own revisionary status A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,2023-11-15 Natural Right and the American Imagination Catherine H. Zuckert,1990 Discusses ways in which works by James Fenimore Cooper Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Mark Twain Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner explore the central issue of political philosophy Mastering Western Texts A. N. Kaul,2003 This Volume Will Interest All Students Of English And American Studies Colonialism And Nationalism Culture And Gender Issues The Complex Relation Between Literture And Society And The Even More Complex Relationship Between Western Texts And Indian Leaders Whiteness in the Novels of Charles W. Chesnutt Matthew Wilson,2009 An examination of race and audience in an American innovator s writings
