Econo-Legal Studies Takashi Yanagawa, Hiroshi Takahashi, Shinya Ouchi, 2021-12-04 This book is the first attempt to establish a collaborative and interdisciplinary field of economics and legal studies It is designed to help readers advanced undergraduate and graduate students but also fellow scholars who are interested in interdisciplinarity to think through the dual lenses of economics and law Econo Legal Studies as we call it is an economics that pays greater attention to the perspective and heritage of legal studies and at the same time legal studies that fully utilize the views and methods of economics while law and economics is just a one way economic approach to law focusing on the effects of the latter on efficiency The aim of this book is to encourage readers to think like economists and at the same time legal scholars as they analyze complex real world issues It presents stimulating discussions on the intersection of law and economics the differences and unexpected similarities between the two perspectives and the new insights to be gained when approaching a problem from both angles For this purpose the extensive corpus of knowledge produced within the framework of the Econo

Legal Studies interdisciplinary program at Kobe University can be capitalized on Basic knowledge of both economics and law is also included in this volume making it an engaging read for beginners in both fields as well

TRIPS plus 20 Hanns Ullrich, Reto M. Hilty, Matthias Lamping, Josef Drexler, 2016-01-29 This book examines the impact and shortcomings of the TRIPS Agreement which was signed in Marrakesh on 15 April 1994 Over the last 20 years the framework conditions have changed fundamentally New technologies have emerged markets have expanded beyond national borders some developing states have become global players the terms of international competition have changed and the intellectual property system faces increasing friction with public policies The contributions to this book inquire into whether the TRIPS Agreement should still be seen only as part of an international trade regulation or whether it needs to be understood or even reconceptualized as a framework regulation for the international protection of intellectual property The purpose therefore is not to define the terms of an outright revision of the TRIPS Agreement but rather to discuss the framework conditions for an interpretative evolution that could make the Agreement better suited to the expectations and needs of today's global economy
