The Elsewhere On Belonging At A Near Distance:

The Elsewhere Adam Zachary Newton, 2005-08-03 The Elsewhere Or midbar biblical Hebrew for both wilderness and speech A place of possession and dispossession loss and nostalgia But also a place that speaks Ingeniously using a Talmudic interpretive formula about the disposition of boundaries Newton explores narratives of place flight border and beyond The writers of The Elsewhere are a disparate company of twentieth century memoirists and fabulists from the Levant Palestine Israel Egypt and East Central Europe Together their texts cunningly paired so as to speak to one another in mutually revelatory ways narrate the paradox of the near distance Bruno Schulz and Galician Jewish Modernity Karen

Underhill, 2024-06-25 In the 1930s through the prose of Bruno Schulz 1892 1942 the Polish language became the linguistic raw material for a profound exploration of the modern Jewish experience Rather than turning away from the language like many of his Galician Jewish colleagues who would choose to write in Yiddish Schulz used the Polish language to explore his own and his generation s relationship to East European Jewish exegetical tradition and to deepen his reflection on golus or exile as a condition not only of the individual and of the Jewish community but of language itself and of matter Drawing on new archival discoveries this study explores Schulz s diasporic Jewish modernism as an example of the creative and also transient poetic forms that emerged on formerly Habsburg territory at the historical juncture between empire and nation state Cosmodernism Christian Moraru, 2011 A study of the emerging cultural model of cosmodernism Ghostwriting

Richard T. Gray, 2017-11-16 Ghostwriting provides the first comprehensive analysis of the fictional prose narratives of one of contemporary Germany s most recognized authors the migr writer W G Sebald Examining Sebald s well known published texts in the context of largely unknown unpublished works and informed by documents and information from Sebald s literary estate this book offers a detailed portrait of his characteristic literary techniques and how they emerged and matured out of the practices and attitudes he represented in his profession as a literary scholar The title Ghostwriting signals the convergence in Sebald s works of a set of diverse historical questions philosophical views and literary practices Many historical ghosts haunt Sebald s narratives on the level of story Moreover Sebald s narrator plays the role of a ghostwriter in the profound sense that his stories fictionally re enact the histories of obscure but once living individuals whose lives they revitalize and whose fates are tied up with the most virulent historical conjunctures of the modern world This study thus seeks to comprehend the constitutive elements of Sebald s poetics of history his implementation of literary tools for effective historical memorializing Handbook of Narratology Peter Hühn, Jan Christoph Meister, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2014-10-10

This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in narratology and is now available in a second completely revised and expanded edition Detailed individual studies by internationally renowned narratologists elucidate central terms of narratology present a critical account of the major research positions and their historical development and indicate directions for future research Place and Ideology in Contemporary Hebrew

Literature Karen Grumberg, 2012-01-05 John Brinckerhoff Jackson theorized the vernacular landscape as one that reflects a way of life guided by tradition and custom distanced from the larger world of politics and law This quotidian space is shaped by the everyday culture of its inhabitants In Place and Ideology in Contemporary Hebrew Literature Grumberg sets anchor in this and other contemporary theories of space and place then embarks on subtle close readings of recent Israeli fiction that demonstrate how literature in practice can complicate those discourses Literature in Israel over the past twenty five years tends to be set in ordinary spaces rather than in explicitly ideologically charged locations such as contested borders and debated territories Rarely taking place in settings of war and political violence it depicts characters encounters with everyday places such as buses and cafés as central to their self conception Yet in academic discussions the imaginative representations of these sites tend to be neglected in favor of spaces more overtly relevant to religious and political debates To fill this gap Grumberg proposes a new understanding of how Israeli identity is mapped onto the spaces it inhabits She demonstrates that in the writing of many Israeli novelists even mundane sites often have significant ideological implications Exploring a wide range of authors from Amos Oz to Orly Castel Bloom Grumberg argues that literary depictions of vernacular places play a profound and often unidentified role in serving or resisting ideology Ethics and Literary Practice Adam Zachary Newton, 2021-09-09 This volume draws together a diverse array of scholars from across the humanities to formulate and address the question of ethics and literary practice for a new decade In taking up a conjunction whose terms remain productively open to question fifteen essays survey a range of approaches and topics including genre and disciplinary rhetoric emergence theory and literary signification the ethics of alterity of attention and of aesthetics the decolonial and the paracritical neorealism and contingency analogy and affect scripture and national literature From Seamus Heaney to Hannah Arendt Teresa Brennan to Stanley Cavell Ronit Matalon to douard Glissant Uwe Timm to Katherena Vermette Notes for Echo Lake to the Gospel of St Matthew these contributions demonstrate how broadly and fruitfully ramifying its organizing inquiry can be Bringing such multifarious perspectives to the topic feels only more urgent as language meaning and expression enter the crucible of a post truth era

Saturn's Moons Jo Catling, 2017-07-05 The German novelist poet and critic W G Sebald 1944 2001 has in recent years attracted a phenomenal international following for his evocative prose works such as Die Ausgewanderten The Emigrants Die Ringe des Saturn The Rings of Saturn and Austerlitz spellbinding elegiac narratives which through their deliberate blurring of genre boundaries and provocative use of photography explore questions of Heimat and exile memory and loss history and natural history art and nature Saturn's Moons a W G Sebald Handbook brings together in one volume a wealth of new critical and visual material on Sebald's life and works covering the many facets and phases of his literary and academic careers as teacher as scholar and critic as colleague and as collaborator on translation Lavishly illustrated the Handbook also contains a number of rediscovered short pieces by W G Sebald hitherto unpublished interviews a catalogue of his library and selected poems and tributes as well as extensive primary and secondary bibliographies details of audiovisual material and interviews and a chronology of life and works Drawing on a range of original sources from Sebald's Nachlass the most important part of which is now held in the Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Saturn's Moons⁶ will be an invaluable sourcebook for future Sebald studies in English and German alike complementing and augmenting recent critical works on subjects such as history memory modernity reader response and the visual The contributors include Mark Anderson Anthea Bell Ulrich von Buelow Jo Catling Michael Hulse Florian Radvan Uwe Schuette Clive Scott Richard Sheppard Gordon Turner Stephen Watts and Luke Williams Jo Catling teaches in the School of Literature at the University of East Anglia and Richard Hibbitt in the Department of French at the University of Leeds

The 'Second World' in Contemporary British Writing Katrin Berndt, Andrew Wells, 2024-08-12 The thirteen contributions to this collection all explore or exemplify the ongoing British interest in the socialist world before 1990 In autobiography fiction film history and lexicography these chapters show how contemporary Britain is engaging with the past project to build socialism in Europe and what this means for the present and the future of our continent Contributions come from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds and the volume is further enriched by a short story especially written for this book and by an in depth interview with the author of a recent popular history of the GDR Together these chapters offer a unique perspective into contemporary British writing on the second world and the enduring fascination with the failures of futures past

Eastern Europe Unmapped Irene Kacandes, Yuliya Komska, 2017-10-01 Arguably more than any other region the area known as Eastern Europe has been defined by its location on the map Yet its inhabitants from statesmen to literati and from cultural economic elites to the poorest emigrants have consistently forged or fathomed links to distant lands populations and intellectual traditions Through a series of inventive cultural and historical explorations Eastern Europe Unmapped dispenses with scholars long time preoccupation with national and regional borders instead raising provocative questions about the area's non contiguous and frequently global or extraterritorial entanglements
